Crew of Ten Rescued As Schooner Sinks In Atlantic

Canadian-built Boat Struck By U.S. Atlantic Rum Guard Ship Sinks

Crew of Ten Rescued When Auxiliary Schooner Shubenacadie Goes Down After U.S. Patrol Vessel Davis Collides With It Fifty Miles South of Montauk Point, Long Island, N.Y., Far Outside Twelve-mile Limit; U.S. Guards Say It Had Liquor Cargo

Canadian Press
New London, Conn., June 12.—The Canadian-built auxiliary sailing vessel Shubenacadie to-day was sunk in collision with the United States coastguard destroyer Davis at a point fifty miles south of Montauk Point, eastward of the Cape Cod light.

A ship sailing fifty miles south of Montauk Point, which is the eastern end of Long Island, would be well outside the twelve-mile territorial limit over which the United States exercises right to search vessels for contraband liquor through a treaty with Great Britain, approved by Canada.

The vessel's crew of ten was rescued. Coastguard officers here said they had reason to believe the Shubenacadie had a valuable cargo of liquor. The Davis, which had been trailing the Shubenacadie, was slightly damaged.

The Shubenacadie is listed in ship directories as an auxiliary sailing vessel built in 1928 at Meteghan, N.S. Its owner is listed as G. H. Keating of St. John's, Nfld.

SECOND LOSS
The Shubenacadie was the second vessel of like registry to sink recently after collisions with coastguard boats.

The oil screw vessel Symor from Nova Scotia sank the night of April 3 after it had been rammed by the coastguard boat Legare. All members of the crew of the Symor were rescued.

MOORE OPPOSES WAGE CUT PLAN
President of Labor Congress of Canada Comments on Speech of Sir J. Flavelle

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 12.—"While organized labor is always ready and willing to co-operate with the employer in an endeavor to reach stability in industry, little approval can be given to Sir Joseph Flavelle's suggestion for a readjustment of wages," declared Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, here to-day when asked to comment on a Toronto dispatch reporting an address made by Sir Joseph to the Canadian Credit Men's Association at its annual convention.

"Organized labor is convinced wage reductions present no solution for the problem," said Mr. Moore. "This, as a matter of fact, is more likely to bring about an accentuation of unemployment by reason of the reduced purchasing power."

"We are upheld in this by many experts in the financial and industrial field," said Mr. Moore. "Experience has shown wage reductions offer no solution of the problem."

Sir Joseph had given no reason in the course of his remarks for the belief any downward revision of wages would produce the results he desired. Mr. Moore said it was a firm conviction it would bring about difficulties of a serious nature.

In some industries, he said, wage reductions had been made, but the results had been extremely unsatisfactory.

END WILSON IS CHAMPION
Defeats Wanda Morgan 7 and 6 in Final of British Women's Golf

Portsmouth, Ireland, June 12.—Miss Edith Wilson of Nottinghamshire to-day defeated Wanda Morgan of Westbury-on-Trym, 7 and 6, in the final thirty-six hole match of the British women's golf championship.

Miss Wilson, who holds the British title to her English native crown, plans to visit North America this summer to play in both the Canadian and United States women's golf championships.

Her father, a Manchester physician, had offered her either an automobile or a golfing trip to North America if she won the British championship and she chose the latter.

Executive arrangements call for Mrs. D. D. Porter, who was runner-up to Miss Wilson in the English championship last year, to accompany Miss Wilson on the trip.

EIGHT MINERS KILLED
Istanbul, Turkey, June 12.—Eight men were reported to have been killed to-day in an explosion at the Giron mines near Sogutluk.

HERBERT WILSON, HOTEL MANAGER, DIES AT PERTH

Empress Hotel Manager, With Record of 22 Years' Service, Succumbs in Ontario

Had Fine War Record in France; Worked Way Up in C.P.R. From Clerkship

In the death of Herbert J. Wilson, which came suddenly at an early hour to-day at Perth, Ont., Victoria has lost one of its most popular and respected citizens.

Although it was last December that Mr. Wilson was seized with a serious illness and had been confined for several months in St. Joseph's Hospital, he had recently sufficiently recovered to make the trip to his birthplace in Ontario to convalesce, and it was sincerely hoped by his many friends here that he was well on the road to complete recovery.

Mr. Wilson was fifty-one years of age. Death took place about 2.30 o'clock this morning at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John A. Stewart, Perth, Ont. Mrs. Wilson, who has been almost constantly at the side of her husband since he was taken ill late last year.

EMPLOYMENT CONFERENCE HERE MONDAY

Vancouver, June 12.—Senator G. D. Robertson, Federal Minister of Labor, will be in Victoria Monday to meet mayors and reeves of British Columbia.

The conference, which will also be attended by provincial government members, will discuss proposals of the mayors' conference that unemployment relief be a national undertaking.

Local People Claim They Can Find Water

Joseph Wrigglesworth, 91, Has Over Thousand Wells to His Credit

Mrs. Amy Best Also Has Water-diving Art; Watch Work of Englishwoman

Efforts of Miss M. E. Penrose, an Englishwoman who was brought to British Columbia by the Dominion Government to aid farmers in the Okanagan Valley and Peace River district, to find water, are being carefully watched in this city, particularly by two persons, who claim to have the art of water-diving.

Joseph Wrigglesworth, 91, who has been water-diving for over thirty years, and Mrs. Amy G. Best of Marine Street, Oak Bay, both say they have the extraordinary powers of locating sources of water.

Mrs. Best and Mr. Wrigglesworth both read the story in Monday's issue of The Times telling of Miss Penrose's engagement by the provincial government, and that "she has no sense."

MANY VISITORS IN CITY TO-DAY ON TWO SHIPS

Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Party Here on Way to Alaska

Five Hundred Daughters of Nile Aboard Indianapolis From Seattle

Victoria is to-day invaded by two large parties from the United States, which arrived during the early afternoon on two steamers from Seattle, the ferry vessel Indianapolis and the Alaska liner Aleutian. Both ships have large lists of passengers, there being 800 aboard the Aleutian and 600 aboard the Indianapolis.

The Aleutian, of the Alaska Steamship Company's fleet, arrived at Rithet pier shortly after 1 o'clock, and will sail for the north at 4.30 o'clock. She has a Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce party aboard, whose members expressed the desire to see something of Victoria before proceeding on their Alaska voyage.

The party was met at the wharf here to-day by representatives of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, including R. W. Mayhew, president; R. B. Porter, past president, and Stewart Williams, chairman of the relations committee.

ESCAPES INJURY IN CRASH OF HER AUTOGYRO

MRS. AMELIA EARHART PUTNAM

Ablene, Texas, June 12.—Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam escaped injury to-day when her autogyro crashed from an altitude of about thirty feet as she was taking off from the airport here to resume her journey eastward from California. The plane was damaged considerably.

The autogyro failed to attain sufficient momentum on the take-off and crashed amid parked automobiles in a fenced-off space near the hangar of the Ablene airport.

Although several automobiles were damaged, it was reported no one in the crowd was injured. The aviatix climbed out of the plane and walked a short distance away.

Mrs. Putnam recently flew from New York to Los Angeles, the first person to cross the continent aboard an autogyro or "windmill plane."

MARCEL SAYS HIGH TARIFF IS NEW MENACE

Canada Headed For Disaster If Bennett Persists, States Veteran Quebec M.P.

Ottawa, June 12.—Disaster will follow the present fiscal policy of the Bennett government if it is continued, in the opinion of Hon. Charles Marcel, veteran Liberal M.P. for Bonaventure, Que., and former Speaker of the Commons.

He counsels adoption of a moderate policy, designed to treat other countries as Canada itself would wish to be treated.

When he shared in the budget debate yesterday evening, memories of thirty years as a member of Parliament were drawn on by Mr. Marcel. Since he first sat in the Commons he had heard some thirty or thirty-one budget speeches, some of them by the greatest finance ministers in the history of the country.

ARE CURSE NOW
The present situation reminded him very much of that of 1878, when Sir John A. Macdonald returned to power with a victory on his National Policy.

The election had been fought on about the same issue, and in a time of depression the Conservative Party had promised prosperity through high tariffs.

"But," said Mr. Marcel, "high tariffs are the curse of the world to-day. The League of Nations has condemned them, and Canada is a subscriber to the league."

Storms Delay Efforts To Raise Submarine

CANADA IMPORTS BRITISH COAL

London, June 12.—The London Evening Standard to-day said several large Canadian orders for British coal had been placed in the last few days, and this year's exports to Canada were expected to exceed 1,500,000 tons.

Canadian Press
The Pigeon will attempt to raise the Poseidon to-morrow from the point where it has lain since a collision last Tuesday with the Chinese steamer Yulu.

The rescue ship arrived late yesterday from Tsingtau to aid British and Japanese vessels, whose divers had been attempting to fasten lines to the Poseidon.

WEATHER UNFAVORABLE
After divers had placed cables about the submarine, the Pigeon made all speed possible in preparing to raise it. Weather conditions were bad. The Pigeon carried complete deep sea diving equipment and several expert divers, but its submarine raising operations were suspended.

One of the thirty-five survivors of the disaster was taken to a hospital to-day, suffering from prolonged immersion in the sea.

WILKINSON DAMAGED
Shanghai, June 12.—Naval wireless reports from Weihaiwei, Shantung, to-day said divers had been unable thus far to penetrate to the interior of the sunken submarine Poseidon in attempts to recover the bodies of the victims.

They had made a partial examination of the outer hull, it was said, and found it to be badly damaged. The weather was described as growing worse and diving operations had been temporarily suspended.

An earlier dispatch said that till the Pigeon arrived British and Japanese vessels had worked steadily in attempts to raise the craft, but their divers were in constant danger of losing the wreck because of the elements. The British naval commander feared the task would be a long and arduous one.

Eighteen members of the crew went down with the Poseidon after a collision with the Chinese coastal steamer Yulu last Tuesday. Thirty-five others were rescued.

GANG MURDER IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, June 12.—Without naming his assassin, Earl Leter, alleged hijacker and underworld character, died here early to-day, the victim of what police said was a gangster shooting.

Police immediately announced they would rearrest Harold McGuire, asserted proprietor of a "beer joint," on a murder charge. McGuire was arrested Wednesday evening on a charge of attempted murder when police named him as the man responsible for the shooting. McGuire then was released on $1,000 bail.

Although he refused to name the man who shot him, officers said Leter told them he had been shot in McGuire's place.

CAPONE AND 68 OTHERS LISTED FOR TRIAL AT CHICAGO

Chicago, June 12.—Alphonse Capone and sixty-eight other defendants, many of them members of his liquor gambling syndicate, were indicted to-day by a federal grand jury for conspiracy to violate the United States prohibition law.

Before handing over the note, the Pontiff conferred with his Papal Nuncio for an hour and a half and they discussed every angle of the controversy. He was reported to have adopted in his latest message the tone of a father grieving at the waywardness of beloved sons, instead of that of an independent sovereign addressing a foreign power. Vatican circles were more optimistic of a quick settlement than at any previous time since the beginning of the dispute.

M.P.'s Asked to Approve New Federal System of Finance Administration

STILL ADAMANT AGAINST BASE FOR SEAPLANES

Rail Heads Refuse to Withdraw Objections, Chamber of Commerce Informed

Minister of Marine Says City Not Refused Foreshore Rights Except For Planes

Despite repeated requests from various public bodies in Victoria asking them to change their attitude, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railway interests remain adamant in their stand against a seaplane base in the city, the Chamber of Commerce has been informed.

In a letter Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C.N.R., expresses his views as follows:

"I have just written Alderman Straith, chairman of the airport committee, regretting that, in common with the Canadian Pacific Company, we were unable to recede from the position already taken, viz. that in view of the important shipping interests concerned we still considered it undesirable to establish the proposed airport."

REPEATS BEATTY STATEMENT
The general executive assistant of the C.P.R. referred to a letter written previously by E. W. Beatty, president of the company on the matter. The letter stated that after conducting a further investigation the railway heads were convinced they should not withdraw their objection to the establishment of a seaplane base at the proposed site. He suggested Constance Cove and other localities in Esquimalt and reiterated the opinion that aviation would be a nuisance to shipping in the congested inner harbor.

DURANLEAU REPLY
Hon. Alfred Duranleau, Minister of Marine, explained in a letter to the chamber that his department had not refused to grant the city foreshore rights in Victoria harbor, but pointed out that in one specific case, where such rights were to be used for a seaplane base, the department considered it dangerous to shipping.

Acknowledging a letter which informed him that considerable dissatisfaction was voiced at a meeting of the tourist group at the altitude of the Department of Marine, he stated that he was glad to see the city of Victoria foreshore grant to the city of Victoria foreshore.

Premier Bennett Gives Notice of Bills in Commons for Appointment of Comptroller of Treasury, New Scheme of Supervision of All Dominion Expenditures and Taking Over From British Government Control of the Mint in Ottawa

Ottawa, June 12.—Division on the budget in the Commons will probably take place next week. Tuesday next is being mentioned in parliamentary corridor gossip as a likely day for the vote, although the division may not come until later in the week.

There are the main Bennett budget motions, the Liberal amendment and the Spencer (U.K.A.-Progressive) sub-amendment to be voted on.

Reform in the financial administration of the government, appointment of a comptroller of the treasury, wider supervision of all expenditures and the taking over of the Royal Mint are all provided for in legislation of which notice was given by Premier Bennett in the Commons this afternoon. Action in this direction was forecast in the speech from the Throne.

SUPERVISION OF EXPENDITURES
If Parliament creates a comptroller of the treasury it will mean a new position of high importance. That officer is expected to exercise authority similar to that of financial controllers in large business corporations. He will have particular control of the expenditures and of all accounting in connection with them.

The comptroller is stated, will be called on to "control" the expenditures and the accounting, and it is understood it will all be centralized in the Finance Department. Supervision will also be exercised over the loans and currency branches. The general purpose is said to be to widen the authority of the Finance Department in every aspect of financial administration.

CANADIAN MINT
Provision is made for establishment of the Royal Mint as a branch of the Finance Department. Heretofore the Mint has been a branch of the Royal Mint in London, and supervised by officials of that service. The government here has paid the operating costs and received any profit that was made. Now it is all absorbed into the Finance Department as a purely Canadian institution. Provision is made for the salaries and superannuation of members of the staff.

RHODES ON PENSIONS
Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 12.—That payment in full of old age pensions will be brought about by the Dominion Government as soon as it can be done in a manner consistent with sound financial policy, was a statement made in the Commons this afternoon by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Fisheries, in reiterating the pledge of the Conservative Party for

LIQUOR HEARING SET BY COURT FOR JUNE 19

Defence Counsel in Vancouver Protests Proceedings in Launch Lupene A. Case

Bail for Capt. T. W. Colley and J. H. Myers Reduced From $5,000 to $2,500

Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 12.—In the face of strenuous opposition, voiced by Reginald Eyre on behalf of Capt. T. W. Colley and J. H. Myers, Magistrate C. L. Fillmore in district police court to-day permitted withdrawal of a charge on which the two men were arrested originally.

The accused were promptly re-arrested by police and customs officers on a new warrant, reciting the same charge with the exception that Mr. Fillmore functions as magistrate for the County of Vancouver instead of as before for the County of Nanaimo.

Colley of Dallas Road, Victoria, and Myers of the Franklin Apartments, Vancouver, are charged with harboring in the motorboat Lupene A., at Klaskanine Inlet on June 4, 414 sacks of liquor and 400 gallons of alcohol, which had been unlawfully imported into Canada.

HEARING JUNE 19
The case, proceeding as a preliminary hearing, is set open before Magistrate Fillmore on June 19 at 10 a.m. Bail for the two accused was reduced from $5,000 to $2,500 each.

The original charge was withdrawn by F. K. Collins, appearing for the Department of Customs, because he was doubtful whether the magistrate had jurisdiction to hear it. Mr. Eyre's objections to withdrawal were overruled by the magistrate.

SEE NO REASON FOR GOLD RUSH

Quebec, B.C., June 12.—The reported gold strike on Rainbow Creek is more or less a myth, according to Hon. W. C. Shelly, who reached here to-day en route to Vancouver after visiting the scene of the latest gold rush.

Mr. Shelly declared there was nothing so far discovered to warrant any stampede.

PIONEER DIED THIS MORNING

Mrs. Lucy Couves, Resident of Victoria For Nearly Sixty Years, Passes

The death occurred to-day at the Jubilee Hospital of Mrs. Lucy Couves, widow of the late Augustus Couves, and eldest daughter of the late Stephen Jones. Mrs. Couves came to Victoria May 11, 1873, the old steamship Prince Albert from San Francisco, and had been a resident here ever since.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. W. H. May, Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, Mrs. Edwin F. Siddall and Miss Cecilia Couves; thirteen grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two brothers, George Jones and Stephen Jones, proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, and two sisters, Mrs. Avis Victoria Couves, and Mrs. C. N. Owen, Victoria. The remains are resting at Bayward's B.C. Funeral Parlors, from where the funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. A. Ramsey will officiate at the service, and the remains will be laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery.

NEW OPTIMISM ON THE PRAIRIES

Winnipeg, June 12.—Beneficial rains, which broke the long drought of the 1931 crop season, were followed to-day by bright and warm weather across the prairies. Farmers were optimistic to-day, for the added moisture has brightened the crop outlook considerably. A warm week-end is predicted by the meteorological service. To-day's report reads: "Fair to-day and Saturday."

CITY TAX BILLS NOW GOING OUT

Annual Rates Become Due August 15; Penalties Start October 2

Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 12.—Census must be shown in the B.C. Supreme Court here at 11.30 a.m. June 15, by Henry Burgess why an order should not be made unsealing him as a member of the Vancouver police commission.

When the case was called before Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald to-day an order was made, as a matter of course, which requires Burgess to show by what authority he continues to hold office. Counsel reserved discussion on the merits of the controversy until the return date, June 18.

The right of Mr. Burgess to sit in the court on the ground he was convicted four years ago in Point Grey of theft of lumber.

There are twenty-four volumes in the tax roll and it is expected to send the accounts out at the rate of two volumes per day.

MURDER VERDICT AT FORT FRANCES

Canadian Press
Fort Frances, Ont., June 12.—Found guilty of the murder of Mrs. Anna Stoyka, one of the victims of a triple slaying at her home in Sutherland Township, Stoney Creek, Ont., today awaited sentence for his crime. He was convicted by a jury before Mr. Justice Sedgewick after deliberations yesterday evening, which lasted an hour, and will be sentenced at the close of the session.

Ueckel also is charged with the murder of Mrs. Stoyka's daughters, Olga and Helen, and the attempted murder of her son, Peter.

The woman and her daughters were stabbed to death March 22. Ueckel surrendered to police at Pinewood, Ont., and when brought to Fort Frances is alleged to have confessed to the triple murder. Argument over his Communist beliefs, it was reported at the time, led to the killing of Mrs. Stoyka and the girls.

The son, Peter, was shot and seriously wounded, but recovered following lengthy treatment in the Rainy River Hospital.

Bills Signed At Ottawa By Deputy Governor

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 12.—Hon. P. A. Anglin, Chief Justice of Canada and Deputy Governor-General, yesterday visited the Senate and signed several bills. Among them was the Interim Supply Bill, granting to the government a further one-twelfth of the estimates, and in the case of the Interior Department civil government appropriations, one-fourth.

The bills signed included one ratifying and confirming certain agreements respecting the joint use by the Canadian National Railways of certain tracks and premises of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company at Regina, and acts respecting the Northern Alberta Railways Company, amending the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act, amending the Government Employees' Compensation Act, respecting the Burrard Inlet Tunnel and Bridge Company, respecting the Algoma Central and Hudson Bay Railway Company, amending the Armistice Day Act, respecting the Grain Insurance and Guarantee Company, respecting the subsidiary high court of the Ancient Order of Foresters in Canada, incorporating the Aeneas Assurance Company, amending the Copyright Act, and an act for granting "to His Majesty certain sums of money for the public service of the financial year ending March 31, 1937."

APPLE GROWERS GET MORE ADVICE

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 12.—An appropriate brand mark well advertised is a definite asset in the sale of apples or other Canadian products in the British market, according to a report received by the Dominion Fruit Branch from the Empire Marketing Board with respect to the sale of apples in the Old Country market.

The survey extended to over 200 retailers serving a market population of around 1,500,000. It shows the Liverpool market prefers the Virginia York Imperial, and next to this the Jonathan, Newton-Pippin and Winesap. In the based apples preference favors the Spitzenberg, Delicious and McIntosh Red, while in the barrelled apples Baldwin, Kings, Greenings and Blenheim were in general demand.

With respect to packing and grading, the Canadian pack of both bared and barrelled apples is considered generally satisfactory as to standard, with some criticism of inferior packs. Grading by size is favored by the retailers and the general feeling is that the present packages are suitable to the trade.

The survey suggests adoption of a flat hoop would be an advantage to Nova Scotia shippers.

NEILL DECLARES COAL 'AID' BELOW TWO CENTS TON

Tells Commons B.C. Industry Gets Next to Nothing Out of Bennett Budget

Spencer Sub-amendment Gives House Third Budget Motion on Which to Vote

Ottawa, June 12.—Criticism of the coal policy of the Bennett government as laid down in the budget was voiced in the Commons yesterday afternoon by A. W. Neill, Independent, Conservative, during the budget debate. The coal industry, he said, had received a measure of assistance "if a measure which with one hand gives a dollar and with the other takes away 50 cents can be called assistance." British Columbia would receive only 1.7 cents a ton by way of assistance as a result of the measure, he declared.

He felt the miners of his part of the country should be put on a parity with other sections of Canada in the matter of assistance.

NEW TAX BURDEN
Henry E. Spencer, U.F.A., Battle River, said that in attempting to balance the budget, Premier Bennett, Minister of Finance, proposed to collect $64,000,000 in new taxes, 80 per cent of which would be paid by the consumers. This sum would be taken out of circulation and business channels, and would "slow industry in general up to that extent."

While farmers of the prairies appreciated the five-cent-a-bushel rebate on exported wheat, Mr. Spencer believed this would be more than offset by the additional taxes.

The budget, in his opinion, should have included a statement of the total production of goods in Canada and the total consumption in Canada.

"To-day we have poverty in the midst of plenty," Mr. Spencer declared. Such new factories as were established in Canada would only serve to make things worse by adding to the glut of commodities which people could not buy. "I am quite sure the system of protection, which is the policy of the government, will never be a solution for unemployment," he continued.

SUB-AMENDMENT
Mr. Spencer concluded his speech by moving a budget sub-amendment calling for suspension of the redemption of Dominion notes in gold as an emergency measure. The sub-amendment crystallized the views of U.F.A. and Progressive members in the "ginger group" corner of the chamber. Miss Agnes MacPail, Southeast Grey, was the seconder.

As a result of Mr. Spencer's move the House now has before it the government motion on which Premier Bennett made his budget speech, the Liberal amendment, and the U.F.A. sub-amendment. There can be no further amendments to the budget.

MATTHEWS SPEAKS
From the government benches at yesterday afternoon's sitting came a suggestion from R. C. Matthews, Conservative, Toronto East Centre, that party lines should be forgotten "in these difficult times." Co-operation in solving Canada's troubles should be the duty of every member of the House, he said.

SUGAR BEETS AND WOOL
In an avowedly protectionist budget two things had apparently been forgotten, said Dr. F. W. Gershaw, Liberal, Medicine Hat. When they were in opposition Conservative had promised protection for the wool industry and the beet sugar industry, but the budget contained no fulfillment of these promises. Canada imported 25,000,000 pounds of wool and the protection afforded the textile manufacturers should be extended to the primary producers, he said. Similarly 100,000,000 pounds of sugar were imported annually from the Fiji Islands. If higher sugar duties were not acceptable to the government a bounty of $1 a ton on sugar beets might be established, the member suggested.

BOWMAN'S OPINION
James L. Bowman, Conservative, Dauphin, Man., did not believe the Bennett budget was a rich man's budget. No government, he said, would dare introduce a budget openly favorable to the rich, and he was convinced the present administration had not done so.

The tariff on corn was welcomed on the prairies, said Mr. Bowman. He was sure that if farmers experimented with barley for feeding poultry and swine they would find it successful.

RELIEF FOR FARMERS
Joseph Thauvette, Liberal, Vaudeville-Soulages, Que., questioned the benefit the farmers might be receiving under the Bennett policy. The Dominion Government should follow the example of the provincial government in Quebec and exempt farmers from taxes on gasoline used in farm operations. They could be given a rebate of the duty paid on gasoline, as the provincial government allowed a rebate of the gasoline tax.

AUTO TRADE
J. L. Brown, Liberal-Progressive, Lisgar, Man., cited figures denying the contention the automobile industry had suffered from the lowering of the automobile tariff in 1926. Now the Bennett government proposed to raise the tariff and cut off imports, thereby reducing revenue.

The five-cent bounty on wheat was legislation Mr. Brown did not like, but it was nothing more than was coming to the farmers of the prairie. He did not know how it could be applied to export wheat and not to wheat used in Canada. The only way to make sure the benefit would go to the farmers would be to pay the bounty on all wheat.

The Conversion Loan was "a simple piece of financing and a simple transaction," said Mr. Brown. The present period of depression made the transaction a "simple one." It was not surprising people should want to invest in government bonds at 4 1/2 per cent.

Dr. F. H. Frost, Conservative, Missisquoi, Que., said he expected to see restoration of lost cheese and bacon markets under the policy of the present government.

WOUNDED MAN DIES
Montreal, June 12.—Victim of a stabbing incident in which two policemen and a woman were also hurt, Vasil Sortans, thirty-nine, died in a hospital yesterday evening. He had been wounded in the chest and back with a knife.

NO ELECTION IN MANITOBA TILL NEXT YEAR

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, June 12.—It is not the intention of the Bracken government to call an election in Manitoba until the fall of 1937, according to an announcement by Hon. W. J. Major, Attorney-General. Speaking yesterday evening, he ridiculed Conservative leaders for "trying to get the public excited about an election."

The terms of the present Legislature would not expire until next year, Mr. Major declared, but if the government desired to play party politics and take advantage of the political situation, it could go to the country at once. He asserted that if an election were called now, the Conservatives would not return six members outside Winnipeg, with the present feeling in the country.

ZIONIST MEETING

Toronto, June 12.—Meyer W. Weisgal of Toronto will leave here Tuesday next for Basel, Switzerland, to attend the congress of the World Zionist organization, in spite of the refusal of the Canadian Zionist executive to recognize him as delegate to the world congress. At a meeting yesterday evening of the Ontario regional executive and the Toronto Zionist executive he was the action of the national body was condemned, and it was decided to appeal to the highest tribunal in the Zionist organization, the congress court, which will meet in session at Basel.

NEILL DECLARES COAL 'AID' BELOW TWO CENTS TON

Tells Commons B.C. Industry Gets Next to Nothing Out of Bennett Budget

Spencer Sub-amendment Gives House Third Budget Motion on Which to Vote

Ottawa, June 12.—Criticism of the coal policy of the Bennett government as laid down in the budget was voiced in the Commons yesterday afternoon by A. W. Neill, Independent, Conservative, during the budget debate. The coal industry, he said, had received a measure of assistance "if a measure which with one hand gives a dollar and with the other takes away 50 cents can be called assistance." British Columbia would receive only 1.7 cents a ton by way of assistance as a result of the measure, he declared.

He felt the miners of his part of the country should be put on a parity with other sections of Canada in the matter of assistance.

NEW TAX BURDEN
Henry E. Spencer, U.F.A., Battle River, said that in attempting to balance the budget, Premier Bennett, Minister of Finance, proposed to collect $64,000,000 in new taxes, 80 per cent of which would be paid by the consumers. This sum would be taken out of circulation and business channels, and would "slow industry in general up to that extent."

While farmers of the prairies appreciated the five-cent-a-bushel rebate on exported wheat, Mr. Spencer believed this would be more than offset by the additional taxes.

The budget, in his opinion, should have included a statement of the total production of goods in Canada and the total consumption in Canada.

"To-day we have poverty in the midst of plenty," Mr. Spencer declared. Such new factories as were established in Canada would only serve to make things worse by adding to the glut of commodities which people could not buy. "I am quite sure the system of protection, which is the policy of the government, will never be a solution for unemployment," he continued.

SUB-AMENDMENT
Mr. Spencer concluded his speech by moving a budget sub-amendment calling for suspension of the redemption of Dominion notes in gold as an emergency measure. The sub-amendment crystallized the views of U.F.A. and Progressive members in the "ginger group" corner of the chamber. Miss Agnes MacPail, Southeast Grey, was the seconder.

As a result of Mr. Spencer's move the House now has before it the government motion on which Premier Bennett made his budget speech, the Liberal amendment, and the U.F.A. sub-amendment. There can be no further amendments to the budget.

MATTHEWS SPEAKS
From the government benches at yesterday afternoon's sitting came a suggestion from R. C. Matthews, Conservative, Toronto East Centre, that party lines should be forgotten "in these difficult times." Co-operation in solving Canada's troubles should be the duty of every member of the House, he said.

SUGAR BEETS AND WOOL
In an avowedly protectionist budget two things had apparently been forgotten, said Dr. F. W. Gershaw, Liberal, Medicine Hat. When they were in opposition Conservative had promised protection for the wool industry and the beet sugar industry, but the budget contained no fulfillment of these promises. Canada imported 25,000,000 pounds of wool and the protection afforded the textile manufacturers should be extended to the primary producers, he said. Similarly 100,000,000 pounds of sugar were imported annually from the Fiji Islands. If higher sugar duties were not acceptable to the government a bounty of $1 a ton on sugar beets might be established, the member suggested.

BOWMAN'S OPINION
James L. Bowman, Conservative, Dauphin, Man., did not believe the Bennett budget was a rich man's budget. No government, he said, would dare introduce a budget openly favorable to the rich, and he was convinced the present administration had not done so.

The tariff on corn was welcomed on the prairies, said Mr. Bowman. He was sure that if farmers experimented with barley for feeding poultry and swine they would find it successful.

RELIEF FOR FARMERS
Joseph Thauvette, Liberal, Vaudeville-Soulages, Que., questioned the benefit the farmers might be receiving under the Bennett policy. The Dominion Government should follow the example of the provincial government in Quebec and exempt farmers from taxes on gasoline used in farm operations. They could be given a rebate of the duty paid on gasoline, as the provincial government allowed a rebate of the gasoline tax.

AUTO TRADE
J. L. Brown, Liberal-Progressive, Lisgar, Man., cited figures denying the contention the automobile industry had suffered from the lowering of the automobile tariff in 1926. Now the Bennett government proposed to raise the tariff and cut off imports, thereby reducing revenue.

The five-cent bounty on wheat was legislation Mr. Brown did not like, but it was nothing more than was coming to the farmers of the prairie. He did not know how it could be applied to export wheat and not to wheat used in Canada. The only way to make sure the benefit would go to the farmers would be to pay the bounty on all wheat.

The Conversion Loan was "a simple piece of financing and a simple transaction," said Mr. Brown. The present period of depression made the transaction a "simple one." It was not surprising people should want to invest in government bonds at 4 1/2 per cent.

Dr. F. H. Frost, Conservative, Missisquoi, Que., said he expected to see restoration of lost cheese and bacon markets under the policy of the present government.

WOUNDED MAN DIES
Montreal, June 12.—Victim of a stabbing incident in which two policemen and a woman were also hurt, Vasil Sortans, thirty-nine, died in a hospital yesterday evening. He had been wounded in the chest and back with a knife.

OUR COAL INDUSTRY

THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT IS taking up with Ottawa the matter of more adequate assistance for the coal industry of British Columbia. The recent budget of the federal government provided for an increase in the duty on bituminous coal of twenty-five cents a ton, making the full tax seventy-five cents a ton; and a bonus of twenty-five cents per ton for all British Columbia coal used in ships and exported to countries other than the United States. Dr. Tolmie recognizes that there is no prospect of changing the duty; but he is insisting that the bonus be increased to one dollar a ton, and has expressed the hope that some plan can be worked out whereby the Dominion Government will absorb the retaliatory duty placed on British Columbia coal entering the United States. The Premier has pointed out that the Maritime Provinces are getting much greater advantage under the bonus plan than this province.

Vancouver Island's interest centres directly in the increase in the duty to seventy-five cents a ton on soft coal, a product which British Columbia exports. But the United States tariff on bituminous coal is reciprocal. That is to say, it automatically becomes the same as that of the country from which the coal comes. With the rise in the Canadian tariff from fifty to seventy-five cents, the United States tariff against British Columbia coal shipped to the western States—Vancouver Island's principal export market—increased to seventy-five cents.

It is this increase in duty that is causing the coal mine operators of British Columbia, and especially of Vancouver Island, serious concern. They have contended for some time past that if the duty were removed altogether, they could increase their sales to the neighboring states on the Pacific slope to a very considerable extent. But they have warned, on the other hand, that any increase in the duty would seriously curtail their export business, since that comparatively small sum would reduce the demand. These facts were emphasized when Nova Scotia operators about two years ago applied to the Tariff Board for an increase in the duty, and the British Columbia government engaged counsel at Ottawa to oppose the application because the granting of it would strike a blow at the industry in this province. The application was refused.

Premier Tolmie renewed his opposition when it became apparent that the new government at Ottawa intended to accede to demands from the Maritimes. Unfortunately, however, it did not have the desired effect, and the duty was increased, while the bonus is considered quite inadequate. Whether the latest move of the province will produce favorable results or not, we should know in the near future, but under present conditions Nova Scotia's coal industry has been benefited at the expense of British Columbia's.

PASSING OF HERBERT WILSON

A LARGE CIRCLE OF FRIENDS IN many lands will deeply regret to learn of the passing of Mr. Herbert J. Wilson, manager of the Empress Hotel, which occurred at Perth, Ontario, yesterday afternoon. While it was generally known in this community that Mr. Wilson recently had suffered serious illness, it was hoped that a prolonged rest in the east would restore him to health and enable him to resume the important duties he had discharged efficiently and conscientiously for many years.

Mr. Wilson's connection with the Empress Hotel began twenty-two years ago, not long after the opening of the establishment. His industry, reliability and pleasing personality won him steady advancement as well as the good-will of the traveling public. When the war broke out he enlisted for service, and to the severe wounds he received overseas may be attributed the origin of the malady to which he eventually succumbed. Upon his return to Victoria he resumed his association with the Empress Hotel, first as chief clerk, later as assistant manager and in 1920 as manager, a position to which he gave every ounce of his ability and energy, tirelessly serving alike the company which employed him and the patrons of the establishment of which he was in charge.

In this city, whose interests he never wearied of promoting through the influential agencies at his command, Mr. Wilson's loss will be acutely felt. Apart from his business associations he was active in many social activities, and his friends on every side were legion. He was possessed of an unusually amiable personality, always courteous, considerate and perennially cheerful even under the stress of the affliction which was undermining his vitality and which at times caused him much distress. The Times associates itself with the expression of sympathy which will go out to Mrs. Wilson both from Victoria and abroad.

CANADA AND BRITAIN

ONE OF THE CHIEF CONCLUSIONS reached by the trade mission of the Federation of British Industries which came to this country recently is as follows: "Development of Great Britain's trade with Canada must depend on acquiring new business at present in the hands of foreign countries, and development of new lines, and complementing and assisting the existing Canadian industries rather than competing with them; and on the investment of British capital in Canada." The report of the commission, which, of course, contains many other conclusions, informs British exporters that many of the complaints made by Canadian importers of poor delivery and service are justified, "and can only be remedied by closer and more personal contact, and a better appreciation of the local circumstances and requirements in Canada."

During the last few years many invitations to come to Canada have been extended to British capital. Commercial leaders, public men, and private individuals have told the investing public of Great Britain that United States dollars have been earning dividends which their pounds might have been earning. But although visiting Canadians who have gone to the Old Country have returned to tell us that there is an enormous amount of cash for investment available, it still seems to flow in only very small amounts to this country, while our friends across the international boundary are far from timid.

Canada welcomes friendly capital. She requires a good deal of it to assist her to unlock her vast store of natural resources and develop them. She would much prefer British capital, however, to any other outside capital. But there is no way in which she can induce the British investor to put his money to work here if he is not interested. Perhaps the mission of the Federation of British Industries, with first-hand information in its possession, will be able to effect a change of view. At present, out of a total investment by other countries in Canada of approximately $6,250,000,000, the United States share is about $3,750,000,000 and Great Britain's share is about $2,500,000,000, less by $200,000,000 than it was in 1913, while the United States total to-day is approximately $3,050,000,000 more than it was in 1913.

The reference to poor delivery and service, referred to in the commission's report, is not new. A recent case is mentioned by Mr. Hamilton Fyfe in Reynolds's Illustrated News. He writes: "In British Columbia a farmer wanted some farm carts. He found just what he wanted in American catalogues, but he preferred to buy British. Besides, the preference to British exports might save him a little on the price. He found, however, that the British manufacturers did not make what he and other farmers wanted. They made a stout, solid, heavy cart that would last forever. If he didn't like it, he could leave it. Well, he left it. His order went to the United States."

These are matters the British exporter will have to settle himself, just as the investor will have to decide his own course. All Canada can say is that she will welcome all the capital Britain can send her, and all things being equal, will be only too glad to extend her trading account with her. She may add, too, that Canada is the logical part of the empire for British capital and British skill to get to work to capture the business which awaits in Oriental countries.

THE BAUMES LAW

THERE IS A LAW IN THE STATE OF New York known as the Baumes law under which a fourth offender must go to prison for life. There is no alternative; it is mandatory.

Prominence is being given to this law by a case which came before the courts at Rochester, N.Y., yesterday; but it is unique because the victim is a Canadian, of Brockville, Ont., who stole an automobile in the United States and confessed that three convictions had been recorded against him in the courts of this country. The Solicitor-General of the United States State Department argues that if the crimes committed in another country were such as would be felonies under New York law, they were as much a part of a criminal's record as if they had been committed in New York State.

The attention of the authorities at Ottawa has been drawn to this case and they are of the opinion that it is the first conviction of its kind on record. While an impression exists there that the Baumes law applied only to offences committed in the jurisdiction of the State of New York, or at least of the United States, no statement will be forthcoming until the law has been examined.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

NOVA SCOTIA AND NEW ENGLAND
 The Halifax Chronicle

The relation between Nova Scotia and New England has ever been of the very closest. In the war of 1812 trade went on between the two as if no war was waging. New England was opposed to the war. When the great explosion came in Halifax, New England acted as if it had been Boston or Portland. A hospital train with doctors, nurses, equipment and supplies came as fast as steam could take it and a sympathetic people rushed to the aid of the wounded. They could have done no more had they been our own. In truth, that is what they are, blood-brothers of the Blues.

ECONOMIC DISARMAMENT
 The Boston Christian Science Monitor

Economic disarmament is no less necessary to the world than military disarmament. And it is probable that in the next two years the solution of the two questions will proceed in parallel lines and at a uniform speed. There can be little doubt even to-day that the announcement of the Austro-German customs scheme is mainly responsible for the hitch in the naval agreement between France and Italy. For France distrusts the Austro-German plan and is afraid Italy is going to support it—or at any rate not oppose it with sufficient fervor. The world needs a Lozano in the economic sphere comparable to the one negotiated in the political sphere through the good offices of Sir Austen Chamberlain.

TIMELY
 The Regina Leader-Post

Western members of the House of Commons are to the fore in the budget debate at Ottawa and in the many discussions on tariff policy that are featuring this debate and other matters before the chamber.

Mr. Butcher, member for Last Mountain, Saskatchewan, has been telling the House that enlightened business men throughout the world are beginning to see the folly of trying to build up tariffs and develop export trade at the same time. Not a few prominent business men in the United States will subscribe to this view, and it is possible that a substantial number in Canada will also, if undue restrictions upon imports from other countries are to continue to find expression in governmental tariff policy at Ottawa.

A. L. Beauchamp, member for Provencher, Manitoba, has been quoting Winnipeg and Regina prices on machines for treating grain for smut to show that they have advanced under the Bennett tariff, with which was given the pledge that prices would not be increased under higher duties.

Loose Ends

The U.S. Supreme Court makes an interesting decision—Our own courts are placed in an embarrassing position—And a new financial cure is discovered.

By H. B. W.

THE SUPREME COURT of the United States recently decided that a foreigner may not be naturalized in this country unless he promises to bear arms in defence of it. This was not surprising. What was surprising was that four out of nine judges voted against this decision, which won by the narrow margin of one vote. Thus we have the interesting spectacle of a country which framed the Kellogg Pact, to renounce war as an instrument of international policy, yet insisting that its citizens shall govern to announce war, but an individual is not allowed to, and the state which thus reserves the right to take your life in time of war makes no guarantee of providing you with a living in time of peace, when, as it happens, there are 6,000,000 men without any jobs. Mr. Chief Justice Hughes, one of America's great Conservatives, nevertheless sided with the minority and held that "in the form of conscription, due to a moral power higher than the state has always been maintained... the reservation of that supreme obligation, as a matter of principle would unquestionably be made by many of our conscientious and law-abiding citizens." The trouble with people like Chief Justice Hughes is that they forget what happens in war time. Nobody cares about conscription or religion or anything of the kind when the nation's slaughter becomes the highest Christian virtue. At such times governments know perfectly well the practical objectives they are fighting for and moral people soon discover that they are fighting for moral principle or something. And so everybody is satisfied except the foolish person who thinks he owes a greater duty to his conscience than to the tribe. The tribe must look after itself first, as nature looks after the fittest, and so long as the tribe exists it is going to be just too bad for such persons.

WHILE THIS has been going on in the United States the courts of Canada have been deluged with actions having to do with sweepstakes winnings. Whenever some fellow wins a sweepstake, which is a legal affair, he gets his relatives to enter suit against him in the courts. As the relatives thereby are entitled to receive the winnings, the winner avoids the possibility of the Crown or some unfriendly person seizing them. That is a charming arrangement, and has brought our processes of British justice to this point: Sweepstakes are illegal and the courts are bound to punish those who engage in them; but under the present law, the courts are also bound to act at the same time and in the same breath to protect sweepstake winners by awarding them to friends of the winner, if they proceed against him. In other words, having made it illegal for people to win money by sweepstakes, the law guarantees that they shall be able to hang on to this illegal money after it has been won. And the courts, being governed by law and not by common sense, are made the instrument of this perfectly idiotic and essentially dishonest arrangement. After seeing what contempt of law has done for some countries, which shall be nameless, sensible Canadians will prefer to see sweepstakes running wide open than making our courts instruments of pure process of justice under the present law. But for the present at least we seem determined to put the law on the side of law-breaking while we nobly prosecute Chicago for the wicked crime of gambling, and motorists for failing to show a tail light.

SINCE EVERYONE else has failed in similar efforts, I am rather proud to be able to announce to-day a method of overcoming the financial troubles of these times. To be quite candid, it is not my own idea. It comes, unadorned and undiluted, from the little girl next door. You must understand, then, that the little girl and her two friends, Laura and Dianzo (which is her version of Diana), go every week to the beach. This, of course, is a major project, for the beach is six miles away. It means that the young father from next door must drive the six miles, half strangled and blinded by a seething, wriggling mass of little girls and the eminent King Nipper. He is mighty glad to leave them all on the beach with three nickels for ice cream cones. At fifteen cents, deliverance from the three girls and one dog is a bargain.

THE OTHER DAY, it seems, the last of the three nickels was paid out by the young father in copper pennies. When it came time for refreshment, the old lady who sells ice cream at the beach asked the little girl from next door how much money she had. Said the little girl, who is not very strong on arithmetic, "Eighty-two dollars, I got." After receiving the three cents, however, she counted out fourteen cents, and the fifteenth penny she put carefully back in her little red purse. Nothing that the old lady could do or say would persuade her to give it up. "My daddy," said the little girl, "says save your money and they will grow." And the three of them and Nipper ran out on the beach again, leaving the old lady very angry.

SO ALL THIS week the little girl has been saving the single large copper penny in her red purse and waiting for it to grow. And behold, when she looked into her purse to-day, in preparation for the trip to the beach, there was the single penny and three shiny nickels in addition. "Look, look," screamed the little girl, racing over to show me, "the big brown money

There was a large turn out of the Fifth Regiment, C.A., last evening, the occasion being an inspection by Brigadier-General Lord Aylmer, Inspector-General. The corps marched to the parade grounds at 7.30 o'clock sharp, headed by the band.

Functionally at 8 o'clock last evening the mayor took the chair in the council chamber, where he remained in lonely splendor for fully five minutes. The aldermen seemed shy about the water question for the first time in many years before any of them turned up.

When warmer conditions may be accepted as settled, the big bioplane entertainment which is to be the summer evening attraction at the George Park will be duly installed with one of the best lines of pictures ever seen in western Canada.

Weather forecast—Victoria and vicinity—Increasingly to southerly winds, unsettled with occasional rains.

Preparations for the first inter-city lacrosse game, which will be played next Saturday between Victoria and Vancouver teams on the Terminal City grounds, are proceeding apace. Full practice of the local twelve will be held at the Oak Bay grounds this evening.

NURSES HELP NEEDY SICK

Victorian Order Services Free For Those in Poor Circumstances

Appeal Made For Liberal Support to Tag Day Saturday

An appeal to the citizens of Victoria will be made to-morrow by members of the Victorian Order of Nurses, an organization that was formed in Canada thirty-four years ago by the Countess of Aberdeen, to commemorate the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria.

Since its inauguration, the subject of the order has been providing skilled nursing for the sick in the home at a reasonable rate, or if necessary, free.

During last year, 12,955 visits were paid by the Victorian Order of Nurses, of which number 6,441 were bedside nursing visits, and 3,212 were of necessity free visits. The cases included medical, surgical, communicable, chronic, tuberculosis pre-natal, post-natal, and maternity. The other visits paid were composed of child welfare, T.B. instructive and other instructive clinics and classes, making a total of 4,514 visits.

HEALTH CLASSES

Classes to instruct the public in the preservation of health proved popular and there was an attendance of 1,426 women and girls at those given on mother craft, health hygiene, first aid and social hygiene, of which there was a total of seventy. There were 2,435 child welfare visits paid. There were fifty well-baby clinics, with an attendance of 841 babies, 1,111 contacts and T.B. patients, and seventeen health talks given.

Owing to the kindness of the Kiwanis Club and the generosity of the public in buying Christmas seals, the order was able to add an extra nurse to the staff and work was extended along preventive lines, such as taking up T.B. contacts and giving instruction in health matters which aid in the prevention of this disease.

Owing to the unemployment condition a greater demand has been made for the services of the nurses and the order, in appealing to the public, hopes that there will be a generous contribution, as all monies collected will be used for nurses' salaries, rent of room for office, cars and their upkeep.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR INVENTOR

Riis Built Incinerator at City Yards to Turn Garbage Into Useful Products

Sentenced to Four Months in Jail in Seattle For Violating Blue Sky Law

Marius P. P. Riis, middle-aged inventor of a process for municipalities to convert garbage into commercially valuable substances, who stirred much interest here over a year ago when he built and operated his demonstration plant at the city's Garbally Road yards, was arrested in Seattle and sentenced to four months in the county jail on Wednesday on his plea of guilty to violating the state blue sky law.

Riis had a large following in Victoria, who marveled at his demonstrations of distilling garbage waste into useful oil and other products. Victorians backed the invention financially.

Herbert T. Pitch, state securities department investigator, had Riis charged when it developed he sold more shares of his privately owned stock in his company within one year than the law allows.

SAANICH BUYS SCHOOL SITE

Plans For New Building Will Be Prepared Immediately

Plans for the new urban high school in Saanich will be prepared forthwith by Hubert Savage, A.R.I.B.A., following purchase yesterday evening by the School Board of a site of eight acres on Carey Road, the price being $4,800.

The land is that originally placed under option, prior to the submission of the by-law to the ratepayers, the board having rescinded its resolution to acquire a similar area at the corner of Carey and Tillicum Roads.

The board made the purchase after interviewing J. W. Rolands, who firmly refused to sell the property desired but renewed his offer of the original site at the optioned price, although the option had expired.

Trustees Tomes cleared the way for the purchase by securing the rescinding of the resolution to buy the Tillicum corner. Trustees Briggs moved the purchase of this tendered site but could secure no seconder until Trustee Hobbs surrendered the chair to Trustee Brooks and supported the motion, which carried unanimously.

Twenty-eight applications for the assistant secretaryship vacated by Miss Falkney, were before the board and will be considered next Tuesday. D. A. Vallance accepted the post of clerk of works, and will commence his duties Monday.

The board decided that the cornerstone laying at each of the schools should be occasion for a ceremony to mark the progress of education in Saanich and will invite leading citizens to officiate.

The trustees deferred consideration of the city's victory in the courts in the dispute with Saanich regarding payment for high school tuition of fourteen children. Chairman Hobbs asked for time to discuss with the reeve and council the question of appealing the judgment.

HOW TWO FAR-SEEING PARENTS WILL HELP THEIR SONS TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THE PRACTICAL THINGS OF LIFE

ON a bright clear morning this June, two boys will step eagerly into a Ford roadster and start on a motor trip that will last the whole summer through.

Theirs will be a trip never to be forgotten... long to be remembered.

Regular school will have closed for them, but their practical education will be but beginning. They will learn many things not found in books. Two far-seeing parents have attended to that.

Pressed by the boys to give them an automobile as reward for passing with high grades, the parents consented on one condition... that the trip must serve a useful purpose. So this plan was decided on.

Each day the boys will arise at seven o'clock and follow a carefully arranged route and schedule. This calls for their visiting principal points of interest in this country and spending time in leading industrial plants. They will get back to the sources of raw materials—see how things are mined and grown—and follow them through the various stages of manufacture. They will see how they are used by millions of people.

Bustling factories will teach of the work of men and machines. The village farms and wide, rolling prairies will reveal the magic of nature and the treasures beneath the soil. Everywhere, through first-hand contact, they will learn more about the great country in which they live.

Thrown a great deal on their own resources—yet not too much—they will develop a poise and self-reliance they could get in no other way. The theory of books will become the actuality of fact.

Each night they will sit down and write a letter telling what they have seen and what they have done in that particular day. And two proud parents at home will read and envy and prepare perhaps to set forth on a similar adventure.

It seems altogether natural and logical that the Ford was selected for an extended trip of this kind. Always it has been associated with dependable, economical, useful transportation. For more than a quarter of a century it has been both pioneer and leader.

Years ago it was the first automobile ever seen in many of the sections the boys will visit. Today it is a part of the lives and activities of millions of men and women. So universal is its service that people everywhere look upon it not only as an automobile but a national institution. It is the symbol and the expression of high value at low price, unique manufacturing and production methods, and higher wages for Canadian workmen.

Many thousands of miles of use will confirm your first impression of quality and give you a feeling of pride and satisfaction in the performance of the Ford. It will meet your highest expectations. You will come back from a long trip convinced that it is "a great car."

PLAN REUNION AT OLD SCHOOL

Native Daughters Plan Pioneer Gathering at Craigflower

Final arrangements for the reunion at old Craigflower School of the teachers, pupils and pioneer of the district which is to take place on June 27, were reported by Mrs. H. A. Beckwith at the monthly meeting of Native Daughters of British Columbia, Post No. 3, Wednesday. Through the kindness of Mrs. J. C. Newbury the post will hold their annual picnic at her summer home at Langford Lake on July 3. The members are requested to meet at the Hudson's Bay store at 5:30 p.m. on that date.

Mrs. Newbury, convener of the garden party committee, reported on the work already in hand for this annual event, which will be held early in August, the exact time and place to be announced later.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. J. Lorimer.

Chapter Gives Week's Holiday To Two Cadets

A week's holiday for two boys was provided by the gift of $14 by the members of the Navy League Chapter, I.O.D.E., who made the donation yesterday at their monthly meeting to the vacation fund of the Sea Cadets.

An additional $25 was also voted towards the secondary educational work of the order, and it was decided to subscribe to membership in the film group movement. The regent, Mrs. Mortimer Appleby, presided.

In addition to the usual routine reports, Mrs. Cashmore, standard bearer, in presenting the report, referred to the tea given by Mrs. Clarke, standard bearer of the Municipal Chapter, for the standard bearers of the primary chapters. Mrs. Row, reporting on the educational work, spoke appreciatively of the tea given by Mrs. Sydney Oliver, Municipal educational secretary, for the educational secretaries of the primaries.

Mrs. A. D. Whittier, the chapter's delegate to the Provincial annual meeting, gave an interesting report of the proceedings.

Plans for the Alexandra Rose Day, June 27, for which the chapter will convene arrangements, were also discussed.

The meeting adjourned until September.

Greeted Census Man With Kiss—Thought It Was Uncle Jim

Montreal, June 12.—"And then she kissed me," concluded the last of a series of reports, narrating to a reporter recently an incident in connection with his ticklish task of counting the great Canadian nation—or an allotted part of it. A pretty housewife, he explained, was expecting her uncle on her husband's side and jumped to conclusions when he called in connection with the decennial census which started on June 1.

"What did you do?" I said, "Hush, I'm not your Uncle Jim. I'm the census taker."

"Then she fainted in your arms?"

"Not nowadays. What she did was laugh and phone up someone and tell it as an immense joke on me."

Another census taker was greeted by a blithe young man who said, "Sure. Come in and have a drink on me. You can put down Mr. and Mrs. Brown and a son. It's a boy... this morning... gonna call him John."

The Sketch Club of the Island Arts and Crafts met at the home of Mrs. Benning, Esquimalt, this week, and some good sketches were made amid ideal surroundings. The gardens were lovely in green lawns, with roses and scarlet Oriental poppies in great profusion. Vistas of sea and mountains in the distance interested some of the members, while others went down to the little cove and sketched the yacht.

Mrs. Benning served tea, and at her request many of the sketches made in her garden during the afternoon meeting last summer, were brought out, and an interesting exhibition given. At the invitation of Mrs. W. S. Gore, members will meet again on Tuesday at 2 o'clock in her garden, Beach Drive.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scobie, 410 John Street, on Wednesday evening a surprise party was held in honor of Mrs. J. H. Warr, newly-ordained minister to the United Church. After numerous competitive games in which Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Mutch secured first prizes the evening was brought to a close by a community sing song led by Rev. J. H. Warr. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Scobie and Mrs. Warr. The self-ignited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cronk, Mr. and Mrs. Hawley, Mrs. E. Tallack, Mrs. Discombe, Mrs. Warr, Mrs. Black, R. L. ## URGES BUYING OF B.C. GOODS

J. B. Munro Addresses Canadian Daughters' League on Home Products

J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, in an address yesterday evening, urged members of the Canadian Daughters' League to support home industries by buying British Columbia manufactured goods.

The manufacturers and farmers would never get far if they attempted to make their local industries the objects of patriotic charity. They must treat the consuming public in an honest and business-like manner, and if they do not do so the women had in their hands the purchasing weapon to put the profiteering manufacturer or industry out of business.

Mr. Munro turned the slogan of "Canada for Canadians" into "Canadians for Canada," or "British Columbians for British Columbia." There was no better way of stimulating British Columbia industry than by looking for the B.C. label.

Speaking of the loganberry crop on the island, Mr. Munro pointed out that local wineries could not use the whole production of the growers, who were faced with a serious marketing problem. He suggested the public could help this situation by having loganberry syrup in drinks at soda fountains in preference to foreign-made syrups.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

VEGETABLES AND CEREALS MAY BE USED SECOND DAY IF THEY ARE PROPERLY CARED FOR

During hot weather we are concerned with the best way of handling foods so that they offer no dangers to the person eating them. For the mother of the small baby, the question of using vegetables and soups and cereals the second day is always a timely one. Often the portion baby takes in one day is so small that there is considerable time and material wasted unless the foods are used for two meals.

The small cans of soups, sieved vegetables, and fruits now manufactured just for children are a perfect solution for this problem if they are in a position to take advantage of these time-savers.

SUMMER CEREAL RECIPE

Our regular recipe for cereal should be altered when it is to be used the second day. We always suggest for the small baby a recipe like this: One-half cup water, one-half cup milk, one level tablespoon fine wheat cereal, and a pinch of salt.

In summer it is better to make the cereal, if it is to be used the second day, with all water. Use one-half cup of water, one tablespoon of the cereal, and a pinch of salt. Bring the water to a boil. Stir in cereal, beating rapidly, let thicken and then set in double boiler to cook one hour. When cooked take out one-half of the cereal and set it away in the ice box in covered porcelain or glass container. The remainder of the cereal may be mixed with one-fourth cup of milk and cooked until the milk is absorbed. The next day take from the ice box the left-over cereal, mix in it one-fourth cupful of milk, and stir it over the fire until it is smooth and hot again. Cool slightly and serve.

BOIL VEGETABLES SECOND DAY

Soups and vegetables are simpler. All that is necessary with these foods is to bring them to a boil the second day and boil for a minute or two. If they have been kept in a covered glass, porcelain or china utensil in the ice box, boiling the second day renders them perfectly safe.

Puddings, jello, and custards should all be used only one day and not put away for use the second day.

The moment a meal is over, all left-overs should be put immediately into clean containers and put on ice. To let the food stand on the table for an hour or more, or to keep the left-overs in a utensil on the back of the stove is poor preparation for their future desirability. In hot weather all foods deteriorate rapidly, and if we use left-overs, as we all do, we should see that they are cared for properly so that they are not dangerous to any of us.

One should be self-conscious about food in hot weather. One needs food of the kind of eye which sees below externals and realizes that heat and flies and dirty utensils are all enemies we have to fight.

To-morrow: "Convulsions End Quickly Under Simple Treatment."

MRS. BRAKE WILL GIVE ADDRESS

An address on "Britain and the League" will be given by Mrs. S. H. Brake at the British-Israel meeting on Monday, June 15, at 8 o'clock, in the Alexandra Club auditorium, Campbell Building, Fort Street. This discourse promises to be of a highly interesting character, and likely to promote deep thought on the question.

LOCAL AUTHORS HOLD MEETING

Gathering Held at Mrs. L. C. Sweeney's Hears "Edna Jacques"

The Victoria and Islands Branch of the Canadian Authors' Association met yesterday evening at the home of Mrs. Lillian Clarke Sweeney, 521 Linden Avenue. Members were pleased to learn that Dr. A. O. MacRae, past president, will represent the local branch at the national convention of the Authors' Association in Toronto on June 21.

Donald A. Fraser read an explanation of the foundation fund now being established in the east and throughout Canada as an endowment for Canadian authors in their later years. The chairman, Mrs. Ebbes-Canavan, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Jamieson, "Edna Jacques," who gave a short address and read two of her poems, "The Shut-in Speaks" and "My Ancestors." Mrs. J. R. Angus voiced the thanks and appreciation of the members.

Mrs. Mary H. Rathorn read "After Many Moons," reminiscent of her journey to the national convention at Halifax, and Dr. MacRae read from The Canadian Bookman, two fine reviews, by John Garvin, of "Fragrant Wisdom," collected poems by Marion Isabel Angus, and "Songs of Carthage," by Lewis Wharton.

M. Bertrand de Neuford, a visiting French author, spoke on his travels and his work. The musical programme was given by the string quartette of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Mrs. M. Stewart, pianist, Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. White, first and second violin, and Miss Strathern, cellist. Mrs. White was also heard in solo, accompanied by Mrs. Stewart, and Miss Strathern played a piano solo. Mrs. Lewis Wharton sang songs.

The chairman mentioned the forthcoming convention of the League of Western Writers to be held in Vancouver in August, and the visit of many of the delegates to Victoria on August 8. Refreshments were served in the dining-room. Mrs. Sweeney was assisted by the Misses Marie Haines and Blanche Ebbes Canavan.

Dr. MacRae thanked the hostess for the hospitality of her home, and Mrs. Angus thanked the musicians for their most enjoyable contributions to the programme.

French Women's Franchise Fight Gets Big Setback

Paris, June 12.—The hope of French women that they would vote in next year's parliamentary elections received a setback in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

By a vote of 320 to 218 the House threw out a resolution of Deputy Louis Marin which favored an early discussion of equal suffrage in France and reintroduction of proportional representation in the Lower House.

Parliamentary veterans said yesterday's action was the equivalent of the United States method of "pigeon holing" bills and it now seemed certain that deputies would be elected next year by districts as in 1928.

Women's Wages Are Rising Fast

Washington, D.C., June 12.—Announcing that plans were under way in Russia to provide employment for 800,000 women in industry, the women's bureau of the Department of Labor remarks particularly of Soviet plans for increasing vocational training among women.

It is said at the bureau one of the most significant benefits arising from technical training of women workers was a rise in the wages of women. It was reported that in five years their wages doubled.

Before the war, it was said, women's wages were 50 per cent of those of men. In 1930 they had risen to 70 per cent.

Big Price Paid For Tapestry

London, June 12.—A wonderful panel of the fifteenth century Flemish tapestry was sold for $89,200 at Christie's auction. The perfect example of the type, it represented the adoration of the Magi. Another panel of tapestry, a Brussels piece depicting a scene in a Jewish Gothic house, was sold for $30,540.

Miss D. Scott and Officers of Junior W.A. to Jubilee Hospital Re-elected

The present officers of the Junior Women's Auxiliary to the Jubilee Hospital, with Miss Dorothy Scott as president, were returned by acclamation for another year at the annual meeting of the organization held this week.

The secretary, Miss Alice Cotton, submitted an excellent review of the year's activities. Several highly successful entertainments had been held under the auxiliary's auspices, notably the fashion show at the Empress Hotel last October, the St. Patrick's Day bridge tea held in connection with the formal opening of the infants' ward at the Jubilee Hospital, and the recent charity ball at the Beach Hotel. The branch had been successful in the sale of its wools on display in the maternity ward at the hospital, and also by courtesy of Maison Steadman.

The membership had increased during the year to seventy. Miss Helen Forman read a satisfactory report showing the undertakings of the auxiliary to have been financially as well as socially successful.

Mrs. Hermann Robertson, its founder and honorary president of the branch, was a specially invited guest at the meeting.

The spacious reception hall, drawing-room and dining-room were bright with early summer flowers. There were four tables in play, the honors going to Mrs. Frank McKechnie, and the consolation to Mrs. Edwin Horneby. After the game all assembled in the dining-room, where a delicious repast was served, the hostess being assisted at the table by her daughter, Margaret, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. W. Wilders. ## DEPORTATION ORDER IS RESCINDED

Winnipeg, June 12.—Good news reached the home of Mrs. Janet Dorsey and her two children here to-day. A deportation order, which would have forced her to seek residence in the United States, has been rescinded by Hon. Wesley Gordon, Minister of Immigration, Ottawa.

The order for deportation arose from the fact that Mrs. Dorsey had taken out a permanent passport to the United States, where her husband is working, when she and the children visited him last winter.

Mrs. Dorsey has resided in Winnipeg for several years and owns her own home.

Victoria Again Stopping-off Point for Touring Football Team

Capital City Has Become Popular With Players From Old Country

Return of Jockey Johnny Longdon Will Please Local Race-goers

Bobby Pearce Should Clean Up English Sculling Events

It is pleasing to note that the English Football Association team, at present making its way across Canada, will remain in the Capital City for four days. All the touring clubs have made Victoria their stopping-off place before starting the long trek back across the continent. Many compliments have been paid to the hospitality of Victorians by members of the various touring teams on their return to the Old Country, and every time a new team arrives here, the officials and players always know all about Victoria.

Plenty of entertainment will be provided for the tourists during their four-day visit here. They will be tendered banquets by the city and Provincial Government, besides many other functions being arranged for their benefit by the football authorities. According to advance information reaching here, practically every visitor is an enthusiastic golfer, so the local courses will provide a favorite form of entertainment for the Englishmen. They will also make good use of the beautiful swimming pool at the Crystal Gardens. Fishing trips to Brentwood are planned. When the Glasgow Rangers visited here last year, several members tried their luck at this popular fishing resort with good success. The complete programme for the visit of the English team will be released within a few days.

Racing fans will no doubt welcome the news that Jockey Johnny Longdon, who was one of the leading riders on local tracks last season, will be back again this year booting them into the stretch. Longdon was a big favorite with Victoria's jockeys in his debut here last season and his mounts usually carried a good percentage of the money.

Longdon experienced wonderful success at the recent Calgary meet. As a matter of fact, this season he was the leading rider in the meet staged at Victoria Park. Two days in succession he rode three winners and a pair of seconds in five starts. Longdon suffered a bad accident in Chicago several weeks ago, but has now returned to his regular form. Last year he proved himself one of the smartest riders that has ever performed here.

At present there are about twenty jockeys here for the opening meet at Colwood. Other well-known riders include Pacey, Craigie, Jackson, Joe DeFord, Marshall, Rodgers and Thorogood. The last two are young apprentices who have been performing well on California tracks.

On the form he has already shown at Putney this season, Bobby Pearce, former Australian sculler and now a resident of Hamilton, is a sculler of recent years and is just a question if he is not superior to the best of the pros.

While Pearce is in England training for the Diamond Scull, Joe Wright Jr., Canadian sculler, sculling champion and former holder of the Diamond Scull, is being seen in a new role at Toronto. Joe is acting as the stroke of a prominent Toronto four. It will be a rest from the arduous task of sculling against the best in the world.

Deauville, France, June 12.—With professionals from two countries competing, France yesterday walked off with the major honor and most of the cash prizes in a thirty-six-hole international golf tournament for the Mastbaum Cup, established in memory of John Nickson, of Philadelphia, and 2,000 in cash prizes.

Percy Allis, British-born Berlin pro, was second at 141, with Pierre Hirsiger, France, third at 143. Two more French professionals, Marcel Dalmagne, of St. Germain, and Pierre Ailaugren, of Nive, tied for fourth with Joe Kirkwood, only representative of the United States, and Marco Chirio, of Argentina.

With Reg Corfield and Eric Leney playing in the first two positions, Duncan will be at full strength for their match against Victoria. This pair turned in some great tennis last week to practically carry the Up-Islanders to a win over Kingston Street. The remainder of their team will in all probability be the same as that which performed last week, with Tisdall and Howe playing at three and four, and Appleby and Denny filling the last two places.

GORDON NUMBER ONE Just who will represent Victoria is not known yet, except that Marsh Gordon will hold down the number one position. Others expected to play Sunday are Hugo Raymond, Brand and Peter Phillips. The other players will be selected to-day.

From their victory over Kingston Street on the clay courts last Sunday, Duncan women are confident of repeating their success against the Victoria team. The Up-Islanders will be playing against better players, and although they will be on their home courts, the surface will be familiar to the visitors also.

The "B" men's match at Kingston will see the Victoria players fighting for their second victory in as many matches. Last week Duncan fell before the expert play of the Victoria representatives, although the strength of the Kingston team has not yet been proven in competition, they are expected to give Victoria plenty of opposition.

THE FOR FIRST PLACE With a win placing them back in first place in the "B" section of the Third Division, Hillcrest will have its best team out for their match against C.P.R. The Sequim club have two wins against one defeat, and are at present tied with the J.B.A.A. for first place. A win this week-end will place them half a game ahead of the Bays.

Kingston directly. Third Division players will journey to Langford with the hope of turning in their first win of the season. The Langford players have suffered defeat in their last two matches and will be out to break the losing streak.

St. Paul's, undefeated to date in the "A" division of the Third Division, should have little trouble defeating the J.B.A.A. Saturday. The St. Paul's Club have won one match and drawn another, while the Bays have yet to break into the win column.

The "A" and "B" matches will commence at 11 o'clock, while all the other matches are scheduled to start at 2:30.

United States Golf Association Will Take No Action Until End of Year

Many Conflicting Opinions Regarding Lighter Pellet; Lower Average Scores

New York, June 12.—The United States Golf Association has adopted a policy of watchful waiting, insofar as the criticism of the new and so-called "balloon ball" is concerned. The new ball will remain official, at least for 1931.

The association has received a wide variety of conflicting reports on the ball from many parts of the country. Informal tests have been held, comparing the old ball with the new, but they have been too inconclusive to form the basis for any official judgment.

H. H. Ramsey, president of the U.S.G.A., declined to-day to discuss the situation that has arisen since the new ball, 1.58 ounces in weight and 1.68 inches in diameter, was made official January 1. It is understood, however, that officials believe no basis for judgment or action can be formed until the new sphere has had a more thorough test in such major events as the U.S. open at Toledo, next month.

CRITICISM as well as approval of the new ball has come from such widely separated sources that definite conclusions have been made impossible. It is regarded as significant that a number of instances, early critics changed their attitude to one of approval.

A number of professionals in the metropolitan area have reported that members' scores with the new ball, although generally showed a lower average than in 1930, under favorable conditions.

The races will start from the corner of King's Road and Quadra Street. Both are boys of considerable experience in the bike game and are reported to be in excellent condition for the meet. The main event's chief contender will be Jim Davis.

Immediately following the events, Premier Tolmie will present prizes to the winners.

The committee in charge of the event has made a request that dog owners living on the route, or in the vicinity of the race, tie up their canines during the races in order to avoid accidents.

Washington Sticks Close To Leaders By Brilliant Play

Senators Promise to Make American League Race Interesting by Showing Sensational Form; Gained Full Game on Athletics Yesterday by 12 to 5 Win Over Cleveland; Rookie St. Louis Pitcher Beats Leaders; St. Louis Cards, Top Dogs in National, Lose to Boston; Giants and Cubs Both Win

As long as the Washington Senators continue to play the kind of baseball they have been displaying for the past month or so, Philadelphia's Athletics are not going to make a runaway of the American League pennant race. The A's have compiled a remarkable record so far, running up thirty-five victories to twelve defeats, but the Senators have remained right on their heels.

The Senators' average to-day was .680, no mean mark in any league, and the Senators were only three and one-half games behind after six straight victories. The only fly in the Senator's ointment seems to be the refusal of the Athletics to lose a few more games for the team from the Capital has been hitting at a terrific clip, fielding up with the best in the league. Nine Washington pitchers went the route in succession before Jones failed to last on Wednesday.

The Senators clipped a full game from Philadelphia's lead yesterday by trouncing Cleveland 12 to 5. They piled up fifteen hits in effective bunches. The only drawback was a slight injury to Joe Cronin, star young shortstop, which may keep him out a day or two.

A'S BADLY BEATEN The A's took their worst beating since early in the season from the St. Louis Browns and their rookie pitcher, Wallace Herbert. The nineteen-year-old moundman, making his first major league start, held the champions to seven hits to win 5 to 2. The third straight day of bad news stopped the games at New York and Boston.

The margin the St. Louis Cardinals hold over the National League rivals, Chicago and New York, was clipped to three and one-half games yesterday as Socks Seibold held the Cards to four hits and gave Boston a 3 to 0 victory. The two teams tally at the finish place turned in a victory apiece.

Bob Smith gave the Chicago Cubs a highly effective mound work, and Chicago beat Philadelphia 4 to 3. Despite Chuck Klein's fifteenth homer of the season, The New York Giants had to go eleven innings to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, but came through with a three-run rally at the finish to win 8 to 6. Bob O'Farrell, Giant catcher, drove in the final run with the 1,000 hit of his major league career.

Cincinnati and Brooklyn tied at an eleven inning battle, the Reds winning 2 to 1. Silas Johnson, stocky young Cincinnati hurler, got the better of Danny Vance and Jack Quinn on the mound.

NATIONAL LEAGUE Pittsburgh, June 12.—The Giants touched Spencer for three runs in the eleventh inning yesterday to defeat the Pirates, 8 to 6. It was New York's first victory of the season over Pittsburgh. R. H. E. Pittsburgh 8 12 2 Cincinnati 6 6 6 Batteries—Hubbell, Berry and Hogan; O'Farrell; Meise, Spencer and Phillips.

St. Louis, June 12.—Socks Seibold limited the Cardinals to four scattered hits, and Boston won its second straight game of the series here yesterday, 3 to 0. R. H. E. St. Louis 0 0 0 Boston 3 6 0 Batteries—Seibold and Spohrer; Johnson, Rhem and Wilson.

Chicago, June 12.—Bob Smith outlasted three Philadelphia hurriers yesterday as the Cubs took the second game of the series, 4 to 2. Chuck Klein, Philadelphia outfielder, got a home run in the sixth. R. H. E. Philadelphia 2 9 2 Chicago 4 10 0 Batteries—Benge, H. Elliott, Falkenstein and Davis; Smith and Hartnett.

AMERICAN LEAGUE Washington, June 12.—The Senators gained a full game on the league-leading Athletics yesterday by defeating Cleveland, 12 to 5, while Philadelphia was losing to St. Louis. The victory left Washington only three and one-half games behind. R. H. E. Washington 12 15 1 Cleveland 5 9 0 Batteries—O. Brown, Harder, Thomas and Sewell; L. Brown, Hadley and Spencer.

Philadelphia, June 12.—The St. Louis Browns made fourteen hits off Walterberg and Kravetz, and defeated the Athletics 8 to 2 yesterday. Hebert held the champions to seven hits. Burns and Goslin each hit a homer for the Browns. R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 7 4 St. Louis 8 14 2 Batteries—Herbert and Ferrell; Walterberg, Kravetz and Heving.

TIMES ON TOP IN WESTHOLME SOFTBALL LOOP

Take Second Straight Victory While Jokers Are Held to Draw By Aztecs

Colwood Get Odd-run Decision on Moose in Thirteen-inning Struggle

Taking a 5 to 2 decision from Totds at Victoria West, while the Jokers were playing to a 12 to 13 draw with the Aztecs, and Colwood were beating the Moose, 6 to 5, in thirteen innings, The Times softball team yesterday evening took the lead in the second half of the Westholme softball league.

The victory gave The Times two straight wins to put them at the top of the league. The Jokers are second with a win and a draw, Colwood and the Moose tied for third with one victory each, the Aztecs fifth, and Totds at the bottom, with two losses.

A few solid clouts in the first inning gave The Times the decision, four runners crossing the plate. They scored the other counter in the eighth. Airtight fielding held Totds to lone runs in the first and fifth. The game was one of the fastest on record in the league, taking only fifty minutes to complete nine innings.

LONGEST OF SEASON Meanwhile Colwood and the Moose were engaged in the longest struggle of the season at Hampton Road. Faced with a two-run deficit at the beginning of the ninth, the Moose hit in the pinches and tied the score. No more runners got round until the thirteenth, when Eddie Focker, Colwood pitcher, smashed out a two-bagger, driving in Colwood's winning run.

Overcoming a five-run margin when the opposition scheduled to hook up in a battle for the leadership, the Aztecs held the Jokers to a draw. The Aztecs were leading, 12 to 11, in the first of the ninth, but an overthrow to second by the Jokers tied the game. It was too dark to play extra innings.

CRUCIAL GAMES Next Monday's games may be the crucial matches of the series, with The Times and Jokers scheduled to hook up in a battle for the leadership. Following is the schedule: Jokers vs. The Times at Victoria West; Umpires, Colton and Pickup.

Aztecs vs. Moose at Beacon Hill. Umpires, Tierney and Yeamans. Colwood vs. Totds at Hampton Road. Umpires, Forman and Mowat.

In the Commercial Softball League yesterday evening, View Royals defeated the Navy at the Canteen Grounds in the second of a three-game series, by 16 to 9. The Royals won the first game, 11 to 10.

JUMBO DAVIES AND BAIN DRAW

Victoria Junior Lightweight Puts Up Great Scrap in Port Angeles Ring

Jumbo Davies of Victoria and Les Bain, Tacoma, yesterday evening fought one of the fastest six-round battles ever staged in a Port Angeles ring. The decision was a draw.

These two outstanding junior lightweights started throwing punches at each other at the opening bell and kept up the terrific pace till the end. The blond-haired Victoria boy turned in a wonderful exhibition, carrying the fight to the rangy Tacoma boxer throughout the six rounds.

The decision by Referee McLarny was well received by the fans. The Victoria boy had a big edge at close quarters, while Bain had the best of the milling from long range. Teddy Beales, Victoria fireman, won a close six-round decision over Al Gowers, Port Angeles, in the six-round semi-windup bout. Beales, the better boxer of the two, was able to evade vicious boxing in tactics of his opponent, and chipped up a lead in points with nice left hand punches to the head.

PASTORE BEATEN
Danny Pastore lost a four-round decision to Johnny Del Guist. The Port Angeles fighter scored two knockdowns and had a good edge in the first three rounds. Pastore, however, made a great finish and had Del Guist in bad shape in the last round.

Frankie Neel scored a clear cut decision over Sailor Jack Smith, Port Townsend, in a four-round bout. Neel put up a clever exhibition, outboxing his opponent all the way.

The bouts were staged as one of the feature attractions of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Convention, which is being held at Port Angeles, and were witnessed by a good crowd.

FORMER BROKERS ARE ACQUITTED IN TORONTO

Solloway and Mills Told They Must Return to Vancouver For Hearing

Toronto, June 12.—Having been acquitted in the assize court here yesterday of charges including fifteen counts of theft from former clients of the now defunct brokerage firm which bore the name of J. W. C. Solloway, one-time president of the coast-to-coast organization, and Harvey Mills, former vice-president, heard today they would again have to stand trial.

Reports from Victoria stated the stock broker partners would be taken to British Columbia for trial at Vancouver on charges of conspiracy regardless of their acquittal here. The men have already been tried, convicted and sentenced in Alberta courts, and also faced trial on a previous occasion here.

JURY OUT FIVE HOURS

It required five hours of deliberation for the jury here to bring in a verdict yesterday evening which ended seven days of trial. It proved a nerve-wracking experience for Solloway, who appeared on the verge of collapsing as the jury foreman pronounced the verdict of "not guilty."

"I never believed men in Canada would convict us for a third time. I always said in British Columbia that we would be acquitted," Solloway said after Mr. Justice Garrow had discharged the prisoners, who were congratulated by their wives and counsel.

The proceedings ended yesterday evening marked almost a year and a half of trials for the brokers. First they were arrested here and faced trial following the clean-up campaign instigated by Attorney-General W. H. Price in the brokerage business during the winter of 1930. The pair were then taken to Calgary and tried and returned here after serving sentences.

English Tennis Stars Gain Commanding Lead Over Japan In Cup Play

Eastbourne, Eng., June 12.—England took a commanding lead over Japan in the semi-finals of the European Zone Davis Cup tennis play by sweeping through both of the opening singles matches to-day with the loss of only two sets.

MUCH POWER IS USED IN HOMES

Demand For Electrically Operated Domestic Appliances Feature of Power Industry

A. S. Edgar of Canadian General Electric Co. Reviews Conditions in Canada

A. S. EDGAR

There may be many views as to the present economic state of Canada, and prophets may prophesy concerning her future, but men in the electrical industry know one thing. They know that Canada is consuming more electricity power than ever before and that the rate of increase is such as to give good evidence of the maintenance of normal living conditions in Canada, particularly in the west.

So much was gathered in an interview this morning with A. S. Edgar, general manager of merchandising division of Canadian General Electric Company, who arrived in Victoria yesterday in the course of a trip through the west.

"The increased consumption of electrical power in Canada cannot be held to increased industrial activity," said Mr. Edgar. "It is due to the increased use of electrical appliances in homes; this is its notable and perhaps surprising feature. Power lines are being extended throughout the west, particularly into rural areas; people are purchasing electric ranges, refrigerators, radios, electric and so forth—then rates with increased consumption become more favorable; more appliances are sold, and so on in fruitful and beneficial manner."

This condition, evident in 1930 and continuing steadily into 1931, is a remarkable testimony to Canada's remarkable economic position, in Mr. Edgar's opinion, when it is considered that power consumption in the United States shows a falling off.

"The position of Canadian General Electric confirms the accuracy of this statement," stated Mr. Edgar. "This is a falling-off in production of articles called for in periods of heavy construction and industrial expansion, but we are setting new records in the production and sale of household appliances. Sales of the Hotpoint electric range show a splendid increase; an all-time record, in fact, made in April. A similar increase has taken place in sales of the General Electric refrigerator; our radio business has been most gratifyingly good, while the way in which sales of Telechron electric clocks have been going up suggests that automatic electric time in every vied home in Canada is coming very quickly."

MAKE NO FORECAST
Mr. Edgar could not be lured into making a prophecy about business conditions in the near future. "Business prophets are at present without honor, and with good reason, for they have, in recent years, all been wrong. The return to good times might start next week, but one guess is as good as another. We can say, however, that Canada is attending to her knitting; that anyone who takes a trip through the country will find plenty of evidence that, despite some difficulties and a regrettable amount of unemployment, Canada is sound and solid, that the people face the future with courage and cheerfulness."

Wants World-wide Campaign Launched

Winnipeg, June 12.—A world-wide campaign must be launched against anti-social tendencies, against real for conflict and competition, that mankind may prefer international goodwill and universal co-operation to war, Mrs. W. F. Cameron, Regina, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, declared at the closing session of the convention of the Manitoba Women's Institute yesterday.

Education in the direction of peace was the only means that would guarantee a result consonant with the efforts of the League of Nations and finally eradicate war, she said.

Psychical Research Society Is Formed

Winnipeg, June 12.—Under the presidency of Dr. T. G. Hamilton, widely known for his psychic research, the Winnipeg Society for Psychical Research has been organized. The membership includes many prominent citizens of the city.

"It has a constitution similar to that of the British Society for Psychical Research, though it is not affiliated with that organization, and the objects of the society are to 'scientifically investigate all the phenomena commonly known as psychic.'"

THREE MOTORISTS LOSE LIVES

Dryden, Ont., June 12.—Thirteen victims of a motor crash at the Minniti crossing near here yesterday, Joan Lyle, eight years old, died early to-day in a hospital. Her father, William Lyle, thirty-five, and his uncle, John Lyle, seventy-one, had been instantly killed when their automobile crashed into a freight train.

CREAM TAX

Ottawa, June 12.—As the stamp tax on cream cheques is paid, "not by the farmer, but by the issuer of the cheque, there is no reason why the ordinary rule should be departed from," Premier Bennett said in the Commons yesterday afternoon in answer to a question from Z. L. Brown, Liberal Progressive, Liasa, Man. Mr. Brown had read a telegram from the Manitoba Co-operative Creameries opposing the stamp tax on cream cheques.

STUPID TREE

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 12.—Jobs on the census are not all they are said to be. A bull gave Albert Crick of Sault Ste. Marie, census enumerator, an amusing and somewhat painful experience, and treed him as he approached an Algoma district. Crick was forced to take refuge in a tall birch tree. When the animal finally departed, the enumerator found the farmer, William Tenho, in bed, suffering from injuries received when the bull attacked him in the barnyard last Saturday.

UP A TREE

Ottawa, June 12.—The London Daily Mail this morning, printing a purported interview with Rudolph Haybrook, scenic artist, described as the closest friend in London of Starr Faithful, quotes him as saying the girl was murdered "because she was to have been the principal witness in a $25,000 settlement case, which would have caused a sensation when it came to court."

The Mail says Haybrook was engaged to Miss Faithful's sister Sylvia and was in constant touch with the girl's mother and family.

The artist was quoted as saying there were influential people in New York who would have been concerned in the "settlement case" and to whom Starr's death would have been a matter of importance.

SCENIC ARTIST IN LONDON SAYS Her Removal Matter of Importance

Minneapolis, N.Y., June 12.—Admittedly "up against a stone wall" in his effort to solve the mysterious death of Starr Faithful, District Attorney Edwin E. Edwards of Adams County prepared yesterday evening to present the case to a grand jury. The body of the pretty girl was washed up on the Long Island shore almost a week ago.

He planned also to take two men to view the body, cremation of which was halted on his order after New York police communicated to him information he believed might be helpful. After questioning the men, one an elevator operator in a downtown building, however, Edwards expressed doubt that they would be able to give information as vital as he had hoped.

CHARGED WITH SLAYING GIRL

San Diego, Cal., June 12.—Moss Garrison, thirty-seven, showed no emotion yesterday as Township Justice Eugene Daney Jr. ordered the railway commissary clerk held without bail for trial in Superior Court on a charge that he murdered his fiancée, beautiful twenty-two-year-old Hazel Bradshaw on the night of May 2.

Garrison smiled as his attorney, Fairchild, propounded his alibi, closing argument, but sat in stoic silence while Deputy District Attorney San Brister, the prosecutor at the preliminary hearing denounced him as a man who stabbed the girl seventeen times and left her body in the artificial Indian village in Balboa Park.

The hearing was in progress a week and a half. The state contended that Garrison, who admitted being with Miss Bradshaw until midnight of May 2, a few hours in a jealous frenzy after they quarrelled while strolling through the park.

Fairchild pointed out that Garrison said he took the girl safely to his door, and contended that another man, her slayer, met Miss Bradshaw after he left and took her for her final ride.

FORDS SCORE EASY VICTORY

Defeat Automobiles 15 to 7 in Twilight League Ball Game; Former Player Honored

In a free hitting game played at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday evening in the Twilight Baseball League the fast-stepping Fords defeated the Automobiles 15 to 7. The support accorded the pitchers on both teams was very loose at times, although the game was interesting from the start.

"Doc" Todd went the route for the winners and allowed fourteen scattered hits. A Hubbard started in the box for the Automobiles, but was chased to the showers in the sixth inning after being nicked for twelve hits and fourteen runs. Pollard relieved Hubbard and allowed four hits and one run when he retired in favor of Miles, who finished the game.

Just before the game started the players of both teams lined up in the infield and a one-minute salute was observed in memory of T. Mukai, a member of the Taiyos baseball team, who was drowned at the George Inlet Sunday.

A short score follows:
Fords ..... 4 0 3 2 1 5 0
Automobiles ..... 1 2 3 0 1 0
Batteries: Todd and Williams; Hubbard, Pollard, Miles and A. Hubbard.

STARR FAITHFUL'S DEATH UNSOLVED

Scenic Artist in London Says Her Removal Matter of Importance

Minneapolis, N.Y., June 12.—Admittedly "up against a stone wall" in his effort to solve the mysterious death of Starr Faithful, District Attorney Edwin E. Edwards of Adams County prepared yesterday evening to present the case to a grand jury. The body of the pretty girl was washed up on the Long Island shore almost a week ago.

He planned also to take two men to view the body, cremation of which was halted on his order after New York police communicated to him information he believed might be helpful. After questioning the men, one an elevator operator in a downtown building, however, Edwards expressed doubt that they would be able to give information as vital as he had hoped.

UP A TREE

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 12.—Jobs on the census are not all they are said to be. A bull gave Albert Crick of Sault Ste. Marie, census enumerator, an amusing and somewhat painful experience, and treed him as he approached an Algoma district. Crick was forced to take refuge in a tall birch tree. When the animal finally departed, the enumerator found the farmer, William Tenho, in bed, suffering from injuries received when the bull attacked him in the barnyard last Saturday.

STUPID TREE

Ottawa, June 12.—The London Daily Mail this morning, printing a purported interview with Rudolph Haybrook, scenic artist, described as the closest friend in London of Starr Faithful, quotes him as saying the girl was murdered "because she was to have been the principal witness in a $25,000 settlement case, which would have caused a sensation when it came to court."

The Mail says Haybrook was engaged to Miss Faithful's sister Sylvia and was in constant touch with the girl's mother and family.

The artist was quoted as saying there were influential people in New York who would have been concerned in the "settlement case" and to whom Starr's death would have been a matter of importance.

WARMER WEATHER FORECAST STIFFENS GRAIN MARKETS

There was buying of grain to-day on the forecast of clear weather throughout all the west, and prices closed up all along the line, with sellers of offers caught. Minneapolis reported heavy rains all over Minnesota and South Dakota, with some places receiving several inches.

Murray's report on Canadian rainfall to-day says: "Precipitation in the wheat area of Canada since April 1 has been about 35 per cent of normal. The eight days ending June 10, according to Sanford Evans, rainfall in Manitoba averaged .14 inch; Saskatchewan .12 and Alberta .71. This is a weighted average of about .30 of an inch, or about 40 per cent of normal, indicating a continuance of drought. This is the time when normal rainfall should be heaviest of the year."

Broomhall reports Australia visible wheat supply now showing 44,000,000, compared with 48,550,000 last week and 44,750,000 a year ago.

Sydney cables that seeding is being delayed owing to the continued wet weather. A big reduction in wheat acreage is inevitable.

Belgium to-day reported a reduction in wheat acreage there.

"The wheat market is very mixed, not responding much to bullish news and becoming easier overall," The Journal of Commerce says. "Consequently general interest is limited. A rally is expected if the rains in Canada prove to be less important than indicated."

"It appears that most of the moisture was in Alberta. Heavy rains in the southwest were the cause of some apprehension, as they were in sections where the wheat is commencing to ripen."

"Continued absence of leadership on the buying side practically nullifies the bullish influence," The Chicago Tribune to-day says. "Crop news has failed to bring in outside buying and traders are awaiting active hedging sales against the movement of new wheat."

WINNIPEG

(By Logan & Bryan) Winnipeg, June 12.—Market firm to-day but the trade passing was small and rather featureless. Opening prices were about half cent higher and further gains were recorded. The new crop months being the strongest and scored gains of more than one cent. Early there was a little scattered buying of export and seed wheat and later local was supporting the market with a somewhat more friendly feeling existing.

Chicago was also stronger and at times there was a little buying of Winnipeg October by Chicago interests. A small scattered export business was worked out of this market overnight. New York reported a small business in Manitoba with indications that there had been a good business in old crop.

Weather map showed general light showers in Manitoba and a few scattered showers in Saskatchewan and Alberta, but weather reported clear all over the west to-day with a warmer temperature forecast. This is the main feature, it being generally recognized that the moisture recorded the past two days has been sufficient to make the conditions and with warm weather in sight the crop will quickly begin to suffer again. Unfavorable reports are being recorded from most districts except in the extreme northern areas.

Demand for cash wheat was rather quiet, offerings were not heavy. Flour trade continues to be without feature. Bradstreet's North American shipments for the week 7,611,000 bushels wheat. Winnipeg futures closed 1 to 1 1/2 higher.

Coarse grains: There were some moderate sales of barley and oats worked overnight, mostly from eastern stocks and western trade was quiet. Look for rye prices to work higher.

Oats closed 1 1/2 to 1/4 higher. Barley 1/2 to 1/4 higher and rye 1/2 to 1/4 higher.

Flax: Strong market with a little buying by crushers in evidence, closing prices 3/4 to 1/2 higher.

Liverpool due 1/2 to 1/4 higher, based on Winnipeg.

N. Y. Market Analysis

The Wall Street Journal to-day says: "There has been moderate liquidation from the middle west at times in the past few sessions, according to market interests. The selling has not been particularly large, however. Part of it is attributed to the closing of a number of the smaller banks in the Chicago territory. Aside from this supply there has been no indication as yet that the heavy liquidation which flooded the market so adversely only a few weeks ago is about to be resumed."

"Evidence of a contest between various speculative traders is growing. Several of the outside operators who were members of the bear group up to about a month ago are now actively working for higher prices in various stocks. Their efforts have been fought by those who retained their short position and continue just as pessimistic as they have been at any time in the past. Similarly when the bears attempt to depress the general list by offering various stocks in increased volume the readers who turned bullish resist the decline. The battle has become most interesting to those who watch the trading closely and the outcome is being awaited by many."

"One of the factors which has aided bullish sentiment recently has been the decided shrinkage in volume when the market has been reactionary. In the past few months more attention has been given to the volume than ever before. When the market was retreating weeks ago and rallies started it was noted that the trading fell off sharply on the up turns. This encouraged the bears at that time. Now the reverse is true."

"Sentiment has not changed. Seale buying is still recommended by conservative interests who insist that the trend continues upward. They again recommend using stops for protecting accounts and advise those who had purchased recently with stops to raise their limits."

"Brokers loans for the past week were down $9,000,000 to a new low record of $1,400,000,000. This was a surprise to many because there had been predictions that an increase might be shown. Some interests believe the showing was favorable for the bulls."

COPPER RECORD

New York, June 12.—Consumption of copper for transmission and distribution of current reached a new high record of approximately 260,000,000 pounds in 1930. This is an increase of more than 80 per cent in annual use by power companies since 1920. In that ten-year period over 1,000,000,000 pounds of copper have been used in construction of power transmission systems in the United States.

Ford Starts Eight-hour, $5 Day On Farm

UNION PACIFIC OUTLOOK BETTER

New York, June 12.—Gross income of Union Pacific for May should be about $10 per cent below gross of May, 1930, Carl R. Gray, president of Union Pacific said.

"Net operating income for the month should make a better comparison with the like month of 1930 than did net operating income for April with April of last year. Crop conditions are generally good in our territory this year. Wheat in Oregon and Idaho is better than fair and in Washington is good. The wheat situation in Kansas and Nebraska is also quite good. Our wheat movement begins the latter half of July."

N.Y. Withdrawing Credits From Europe

Paris, June 12.—Continuance of withdrawal of American credits from Germany and Central Europe has been confirmed in several quarters here, while at the same time it is asserted that for most part British and French credits placed in those countries have not been reduced, although about one-third of the total outstanding French acceptances are in Germany. The Reichsbank is understood to have lost over $75,000,000 of gold and exchange since June 1 in defense of mark exchange, but is prepared to let a considerably larger amount go. Avidness of the exodus of capital from Germany is to be found in the popular demand for dollar bills for which German banks have now fixed rate of 4.30 marks compared with the par of mark exchange of New York of 4.198 marks to the dollar.

C.P.R. EARNINGS OFF $790,000 FOR WEEK

Canadian Press
Montreal, June 12.—Traffic earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the seven-day period ending June 7 were $790,000, as compared with $3,729,000 in 1930, a decrease of $790,000.

SOUTH AMERICA BOND NEWS

Furnished by C. L. H. Branson

M. Zuckerman, chief of commercial section of Soviet Oil Trust, denies formation of Russian oil company in Mexico.

Republic of Chile—Official advice indicates that through the practice of economy the government was able to show a small surplus at the end of the last fiscal year, and that the 1931 budget limits expenditures to approximately $120,345,400, which represents a reduction of $6,130,000 or 4.18 per cent below actual expenditures of last year.

While world economic conditions have operated to curtail the volume of external and domestic trade, it is apparent that the government is making every effort to meet the existing situation, to keep its budget balanced, and to maintain the stability of the peso in international markets.

According to reports the government has strong popular support in carrying out these policies, and the Chilean Government has always amply demonstrated the republic's good faith and the country's capacity to regularly meet interest and sinking fund payments on its external obligations.

Recent reports state that arrangements have been made by American banks to give Chile new short-term credits aggregating $10,000,000. The credits represent three separate transactions, one for over $10,000,000, at 6 per cent, to run for six months; another for $2,000,000 at 6 per cent to run for four months; and a third for $2,000,000 at 6 per cent to run for an unexpired short term.

False Pessimism Of 1907 Recalled

New York, June 12.—From a chart of security prices on the New York Stock Exchange for the year 1907, S. W. Straus and Co. found that after a continuous decline in values the stock market turned upward late in September without warning. The company presents some of the newspaper headlines of this period (1907): "New York Central fails to sign dividend—heavy selling in U.S. Steel. Rumor Southern Pacific will not pay dividend. Coffee 10 to 15 points lower. Stocks continue downward plunge. Call money at new low, 2 1/2 per cent." This probably is not significant, but certainly is interesting reading now.

The Handsome Man

By Margaret Turnbull
Illustrations by Irwin Myers

While he had been at home he had been down perforce to his father, and a fine, tyrannical, old blackguard and humbug that parent had been. Robert never wanted his daughter to think of him in just that way. Yet how was he to make her see the error of her ways? Macbeth knew that girls of eighteen, however intelligent and sophisticated, were scarcely to be trusted to navigate their own little boats on a life-crowded river. He had seen a few shipwrecks in his time and he meant to pilot his girl.

He looked up and saw Joe Light's car coming down the road toward the island. He rang with impatience, and also rapped loudly with his stick on the floor of the terrace. The unheeding, seeing the chauffeur and the maids leave the island. It dawned in him that he was quite alone.

He remembered now that Roberta had fairly observed that they would have to get along somehow until the new servants came from the city, and as it was possible they might not arrive at the island until tomorrow. The unpleasantness of this morning had begun with a statement from Roberta that in this place it was impossible to get or keep a decent staff of servants. It was far from everywhere. The servant brought from the city would not put up with its remoteness, and as for temporary help, which was all he could get in this place, it was beyond speech.

Robert, the millionaire, groaned, and turned to watch the car cross the bridge and make its way toward the house. It came to a standstill just beneath him, and he saw Joe lift out two or three traveling bags and then turn to speak to the first of his passengers who alighted. This was a tall young man with golden brown hair, which gleamed in the sunlight as he took off his hat and looked toward the island with a smile. He told a middle-aged woman with a round and plump figure. Bob Macbeth looked at her idly.

Must be the cook-housekeeper and the butler Roberta expected, but she had not told him they were Scots. Robert Macbeth prided himself on his house, gained from years of handling immigrant labor, of unerringly recognizing nationality, even city or district, at a glance. The woman was talking to Joe Light, who evidently did not quite understand her. He saw the young man gently touch her arm, as though to bid her be quiet, and himself addressed Joe. Robert Macbeth, for rodded and grinned with pleasure, climbed back into the front seat and composed himself to wait. The man and the woman came toward the house. They rang several times, but there was no response.

He raised himself painfully in his chair, rapped loudly with his cane and called out: "This way!" They turned and came toward him. There was no doubt the dumpy little woman was a Scot. Robert Macbeth, to long a resident of this country that he had ceased to think of himself as anything but an American, felt a warm feeling of kinship, strong as only Scottish Scots and possibly the equally plannish Jews can feel at the sight of another of their race in a strange land.

She was typical, this little woman. A good-looking woman at that! But what clothes! He found himself eager to hear her speak. He knew before hand she would have a glorious burr, and maybe something of a dialect. It was music to his ears. After all these years of Americanization, Robert Macbeth still thrilled to bagpipes, or the burr of a Scot's voice.

He glanced at the man to whom she was talking, and whistled, low. Sel-doms had he seen such a handsome man. The fellow was striking, both as to his height, the clear-cut beauty of his features and his fine head with its brown hair, gleaming gold in the sunlight. Under his broad brows his brown eyes, large and finely formed, looked out with a curious directness.

"Have you room or shall I send him back to the town for the night?"

"Her brother gave her a quick look. 'What's it mean?' 'Nothing,' said Aggy stubbornly. 'It's but natural.' 'Good O—d!' exclaimed her brother. 'Is anything wrong with him? Are you still his nurse?'

Aggy looked at him scornfully and yet a little proudly. "I am not, and have not been for many a year. I'm his stepmother."

"What!" roared the owner of the island, who had been thinking how best he could in a modest way introduce to his poor, but proud, sister the great story of his success, his millions. "You," said his sister, "a matter-of-fact calmness that deceived her brother, and then proceeded to spit all his guns by her declaration: 'I'm Lady Sandison, of Sandisbrae.'"

She kept her eyes away from her brother, until she thought he had guessed this and then added: "I'm traveling, with my stepson, Sir George. We thought we'd just drop in and see you on our way."

The master of the island stared at his sister. There was a considerable pause during which Robert thought hard before he asked: "How did you manage it, Aggy?" Lady Sandison looked at him with quiet dignity. "It's a long story, but it'll be told in time, Rob. Are we invited to bide the night, or am I to tell the taxi-man to drive?"

"Here, Joe," called Macbeth, "put the bags in the hall. Open the door yourself. There are no servants in the house, thinking of the trunk up from the station to-night."

"Sure-a, ails right," Joe responded blithely, and carried the bags toward the door. Lady Sandison waved her hand, and summoned her stepson imperatively. He started toward them.

"You be beautiful!" asked Aggy proudly. Macbeth groaned. "Handsome is as handsome does," he countered. "Aye," agreed Lady Sandison, "in the same way that beauty is only skin deep, and Guid Kien that's deep enough. Sir George, this is my brother, Rob."

"How are you, Mr. Macbeth?" Sir George asked quickly. "Can I do anything?" he continued as Rob Macbeth shifted uneasily in his chair and groaned with pain at even that slight movement.

"Sir George, you're welcome to my house and everything in it," Macbeth said, and then, with a little awe of the changes time brings, The last time he had seen this man was as a tiny boy, in Aggy's arms. With a start he continued cordially: "You be beautiful!"

"I'm unable to do the honors. My daughter is out and there are no servants, temporarily. Will you go in and make yourself at home? You'll find plenty to smoke and drink in the library. My sister has something to say to me before I ask you to help me in."

GETTING HOUSE RAGGED

—By AHERN

Then the Bob Cat had said: "Poon, who's afraid of a stone," and he turned his back on the turtle and just then the turtle stuck his head out of his shell and what did he do?

Well, I think you can guess. Yes, indeed, the turtle opened his mouth, which was something like a parrot's beak, and the turtle reached up and caught hold of the silly little tail of the Bob Cat and he bit and pinched and pinched and bit. I mean the turtle pinched the Bob Cat's tail very, very hard.

"Wouch! Ow! Woo!" howled the Bob Cat. "What is pinching my tail?"

"That's the stone," said the turtle, "to throw at you if you don't leave Uncle Wiggily alone," said Baby Bunty.

"Ha, ha!"

"But a stone can't pinch my tail!" roared the Bob Cat. "Impossible!"

Then he danced around and looked over his shoulder and when he saw the jolly old turtle hanging on his tail with his head and legs now sticking out between the two hard shells, why, that Bob Cat was so surprised that he gave a loud howl and away he ran as fast as he could run, with the turtle hanging dingling dangling down from his silly little tail like a pendulum on a clock.

"Well," said Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose, "I think we have seen the last of that Bob Cat for to-day."

"But what about the poor turtle?" asked Bunty.

"He was very kind," said Uncle Wiggily. "Indeed he was," said Uncle Wiggily. "But have no fear about the jolly old turtle gentleman."

So Baby Bunty and the others had no fear. For well they knew that when the turtle wanted to let go the Bob Cat's tail he could do so and by drawing his head, legs and tail in between the shells the turtle would be like a hard stone and no one could harm him.

"My!" said Uncle Wiggily, as the Bob Cat General Hospital. The ladies who volunteered were: Mrs. Russell Robinson, convenor; Mrs. N. B. Scott, Mrs. R. Clegg, Mrs. J. Can We Hope to Make Things as We Want Them?
Dorothy Dix
Advice Accepting Life As It Is

"Used to Live on Hope," Says One Philosophical Woman, "but I Find That When You Make Up Your Mind to Bear a Thing and Not Worry Over It, the Worst of It Is Over"

"NO Pollyanna," said a woman to me the other day. "I have never been able to get any kick out of saying to myself that it is a lovely sunny day when it is raining cats and puppy dogs. Neither have I ever been able to kid myself into thinking it is an error of judgment when I have a jumping toothache."

"On the contrary, when it is raining it seems to me that it is about the proudest shower I ever saw. And when I am sick and miserable I know I am sick and miserable, and I want to look at it and accept it and make the best of it. Of course, they never happened and I wore myself out in anguished meditation that always ended in disappointment."

"But I have evolved a system of philosophy out of which I get a lot of comfort and sustaining, and it consists in just looking facts squarely in the face and accepting them and making the best of them."

"I used to live on hope, which is a good deal like living on dope. I would have visions of miracles being wrought by my belief—or people's dispositions being changed, of special talents being manifested, of fortunes dropping from the sky. Of course, they never happened and I wore myself out in anguished meditation that always ended in disappointment."

"But I no longer try to drug my mind into believing that things are going to be the way I want them to be just because I want them to be that way. I recognize that they are as they are and I set about making the best of them on that platform. I find that when you make up your mind to bear a thing and not worry over it, the worst of it is over. It is the kicking against the inevitable that wounds you so. It is the struggle against the impossible that wears you to a frazzle."

"For example, I am one of the innumerable women who is compelled to live with a disagreeable mother-in-law. For years I was nearly driven wild by her nagging, by her ceaseless flow of advice and suggestions and interference and by her never-ending criticisms of everything I did or didn't do."

"But no more. I have quit torturing myself by thinking how terrible it is to have to live with her and how happy and peaceful my home would be without her. I have just accepted the fact that as long as she lives I must endure her and take care of her, and I have learned to shut my ears to her complaints, so that really half the time I don't even hear what she is saying."

"I used to brood over the acid remarks she would make about my housekeeping and the way I raised my children, and my gadding around instead of staying at home and doing my housework. But now I just laugh at them and shrug my shoulders and say to myself that it is all in the day's work, and the result is that she has no longer the power to make me unhappy."

"My husband is one of the best and kindest of men, and one of the most untidy that ever lived. He has a rooted belief which nothing can shake that the proper place for hanging up clothes is on the floor, and he scatters his belongings as he goes from one end of the house to the other. For him merely to pass through a room leaves it a wreck."

"For years I almost worked myself into nervous prostration and nearly drove me to divorce trying to teach him to be neat and orderly. Then suddenly it dawned upon me how much less wear and tear it would be on my nerves and position to pick up after him than it was to be in a perpetual row with him for not putting everything in its proper place."

"I suppose every girl thinks that the man she marries is going to be a great success, and that he is at least going to be a money-maker. I know I did, and although we married on a shoestring, we lived for years on a great strain trying to keep up with people who were better off than we were. My, those terrible days when we would do without meat for a month to give a dinner party! When I would work my fingers to the bone making over my old clothes so that my best friends wouldn't know them! When the rent collector was a figure of doom and the first of the month a nightmare!"

"Finally I faced the fact that John was just a plodder and would never make fortune, and that while we might be able to get bread and butter, we would never be able to afford a car. So we just gave up the struggle to try to appear rich and fashionable and settled down into the financial class in which we belonged. We gave up our smart friends before they could give us up, and we went to live in a neighborhood among people who were no better off than we were. As a result, we are happy and contented instead of eating our hearts out in envy or working ourselves to death at the bluff of keeping up appearances."

"It seems to me that if women would adopt my little bit of homespun philosophy of accepting their lives as they are, instead of repining because they are not something else, it would do more than any other one thing to make them happy. For what is the use of yearning for the moon that you can't get, and that you would probably find made of green cheese if you did find it? Far better to make the most of the good electric bulb that you possess."

"Perhaps, in a way, this is a surrender to Fate, but there is a lot of peace under the white flag."

Graduation
June is the month of more graduations than any other month of the year. Grade schools, high schools, colleges and universities give diplomas to millions of students.

To members of the Corner family who graduate this month, I extend my very good wishes. I hope they will go on with courage to overcome hardships, with a desire to keep on learning, and with a friendly and kindly feeling toward their fellows in the struggle of life.

On what we want to do that we forget others who are struggling for objects which they think worthwhile. "Success" may be, and often is, a worthy object; but if we strive for personal success, we should never do it at the price of trampling on our fellows. The earth is richly stored with blessings for mankind, and some day I hope it will provide happy, joyous lives for all men, women and children who breathe.

True success, it seems to me, is measured by what we do to build a better world.

INSTALL NEW OFFICERS OF ROTARY CLUB

Impressive Ceremonies Conducted By Local Clubmen at Dinner

Splendid Entertainment Programme Given; Excellent Addresses Given

Recently elected officers of the Rotary Club took over the reins of government from retiring heads in an impressive installation ceremony yesterday evening when members, representatives of other service clubs in the city and guests gathered to give them a warm reception at a special dinner in the Empress Hotel.

In addition to the actual installation, a report from the retiring board, read by Rev. Montague W. J. Bruce, splendid vocal solos by Miss Isobel Crawford, a humorous skit by a party from the Mimes and Masquers Guild and a presentation to the retiring president were greatly enjoyed. Dancing closed the evening.

Considering the business conditions of the closing fiscal year, the club had held up well during their term of office, the directors' report stated. The officers had adhered strictly to the budget and had not been for the cutting of a month's worth of year, a surplus might have been expected, Rev. Montague Bruce said, reading the annual statement.

OUTLINE ACTIVITIES
In some detail he outlined the forty-seven general meetings held during the year along with intercity gatherings with Port Angeles, Duncan and Sequim, where Victoria was represented at inaugural meetings. Many interesting and outstanding speakers had addressed the club during the year and artists of particularly high calibre had assisted at meetings. In referring to the latter, Rev. Bruce made particular mention of the Victoria High School choir.

Membership figures showed a decrease of six since last year, the present roll standing at 104.
The attendance for the year stood at 79.27 per cent, six members being present at every meeting. Of these, Percy Watson, the newly-elected president, was one, making his record for continued unbroken attendance up to nine years.

SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION
Of the different functions held during the year, the report referred particularly to the highly successful water gala in which Helene Madison was the feature attraction, and the Pageant of Nations held in the Armories.

While interest had waned to some degree in the seed-growing competitions, the contests were being re-organized. Work with the "underprivileged children" had been continued, and the sports committee had been very active, particularly in golf and softball.

Tribute to the work of the ladies of Rotary was paid by the directors, who expressed their appreciation of the co-operation they had given the club.
Thanks were extended to the press, the Empress Hotel and the members of the club for their assistance during the year. In closing the retiring president thanked the members personally for their assistance.

Following the report, which was adopted, Miss Isobel Crawford, accompanied on the piano by Miss G. Allen, delighted the gathering with the vocal solos, "The Piper of Love" and "Call of O'ne".

NEW HEADS INSTALLED
Rev. Mr. Bruce installed the officers, including a vein of humor in his more serious remarks to the new leaders.
J. Percy Watson was given the gavel as president. V. C. Clark was installed as vice-president, a post he will share with W. P. Pinfold. Horace Pimley was officially introduced as treasurer and E. Armstrong, John Craig and Neil Laughton as directors and John Johnson as sergeant-at-arms.

Taking office, the new president expressed his pleasure at the confidence the members of the club had shown in him in naming him for the office. He realized the big responsibility which would be his and stated he was prepared to give the best in his power to the organization.

The ideals of Rotary were above the individual. These ideals he would try to carry out and was sure he would be given the support of the entire club in his work.

TRIBUTE TO NEW BOARD
Mr. Watson paid high tribute to the capabilities of the new directors, saying there was a large percentage of experienced men in the body as well as enough new blood to bring in new ideas.

To the ladies he stated he expected their continued co-operation in the more idealistic of the club's work.
Before closing, the newly-installed

VIOLIN RECITAL HERE TO-NIGHT

Tuberculosis Branch to Present Francis Armstrong at the Empress

Francis Armstrong, who will appear in recital here this evening at the Empress Hotel, under the auspices of the Tuberculosis branch of the Canadian Legion, is well known to Victoria's musical audiences, this being his fourth recital in four years. From a boy violin prodigy, Francis Armstrong graduated by the process of serious study in Europe and America into a full-fledged artist, and has appeared extensively in Europe and America, having started his concert career at the age of nine. From the age of fourteen a long period of study under the leading masters of Europe was followed by concert tours, which brought him highest praise from leading European and United States critics.

It is a matter of pride that Francis Armstrong owes to his native city of Victoria his early training on the violin, and his admirers extend over a wide range of territory, both in Canada and the United States.

She Found the Real Cause of "Spotty" Skin

And soon righted things with Carter's Little Liver Pills

It is impossible to repair a bad complexion by exterior treatment. Miss E. T. of Clapham found this out. Her letter is full of common sense: "I find (she writes) that Carter's Little Liver Pills will do more to keep the complexion clear and the skin free from blemishes than all the face creams I have used. I found the real cause of face blemishes was usually due to liver and stomach troubles. My druggist recommended Carter's as specific for stimulating the liver and expelling constipation poisons. Vegetables, as everyone knows, promote health. Dr. Carter's Little Liver Pills are entirely vegetable and should not be confused with ordinary laxatives. These wonderful little pills will tone up your liver, invigorate your digestive tract and keep you in the best of health. Sold by druggists over 60 years. 25c & 75c red pills. (adv.)"

"EMPIRE FIRST" TRADE REPORT

Sir J. Lithgow Explains Recommendation of Mission Which Visited Canada

By GEORGE HAMBLETON

Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
London, June 12.—Sir James Lithgow, president of the Federation of British Industries, in an interview yesterday following publication of report Wednesday evening of trade mission of the federation which recently visited Canada, remarked the report stressed the plea of "Empire First."

"On this, the report itself says: 'Politicians, the public press and public speakers have raised cries of "Great Britain First," "Canada First," "Australia First," "South Africa First," and have introduced thereby an undesirable atmosphere of rivalry into empire discussion; but inasmuch as empire unity is essential for the continuing welfare of the British race, national policies should follow a larger issue, the only cry should be "Empire First."'

COMPARISON MADE
Sir James, who was head of the trade mission, thought that under the Canadian budget British industry would necessarily be put at a greater disadvantage as compared with Canadian industry, but still would be at a greater advantage than United States industry. Experience alone would show which aspect had the greater effect, he added.

The report of the mission, which recommended co-operation among British industrialists in the Canadian market, development of a policy of complementing and assisting Canadian industry instead of competing with it, closer empire communications and formation of an empire statistical organization, has aroused widespread comment.

DESCRIBED AS PLATITUDES
The report's maxims in regard to the necessity of reciprocal trade between the units of the empire and the prosperity of each part being necessary to ensure the prosperity of the whole, were described by "The Manchester Guardian" as "plain platitudes." The "Guardian" Liberal organ, "failed to see" why they can only be fulfilled by a change in our fiscal system.

"The actual conclusions of the mission," the Manchester Guardian continued, "are on a more realistic plane. Practical suggestions for group marketing and publicity, better statistics and closer contact with the Canadian market, development of a policy of complementing and assisting Canadian industry instead of competing with it, closer empire communications and formation of an empire statistical organization, has aroused widespread comment."

EMPIRE SECRETARIAT
The Financial News said the proposal for a permanent empire economic secretariat deserved wholehearted support. "The great advantage of such a measure would be that it should make it possible to form the empire into a unit within which trade could be carried on at least under steady and uniform conditions." The Financial News said, "and it should be possible in spite of recent tariff reorganizations carried out by the Dominions to avoid fluctuations in tariffs likely to divert at all appreciably the existing channels of trade. It is only under such conditions that the development of a special trade with Canada would have positive value. But if something of the sort could be achieved the remaining suggestions of the mission would have real force."

The London Morning Post said it was an extremely stimulating report, and that it emphatically challenged "the belief flippantly expressed by defeatists and pessimists that economically Canada must become more and more an annex of the United States."
